   - EMAIL CORRESPONDENCE
1. Submission Requirements

Manuscripts may be submitted in hard copy, or by email to slr@law.usyd.edu.au Please cc the email to editor@slr.law.edu.au

If submitting by email, please use the ‘return receipt’ function or confirm by subsequent email that it has been received.

Manuscripts should be typewritten in 12 point font size, using a True Type font that is easy to read. The text should be double spaced and typed on one side of A4-size paper, leaving generous margins.

A 100-200 word abstract of the submission must be included.

[A] Author Note

Please place an asterisk symbol [*] after the author’s name (which should appear below the title) and use it to include the author’s full name and institutional affiliation; eg ‘Senior Lecturer in Law, Monash University’. The author note precedes the first numbered footnote.

Full stops [.] should appear at the end of all footnotes.

[B] Pinpoint Citation

The SLR uses ‘at’ rather than ‘p’ / ’pp’.

The SLR prefers citation to specific pages or blocks of pages as opposed to chapters; eg ‘at 671-691’ not ‘at ch 11’.

If referring to several specific pages from one source, separate the page numbers with commas:

Where several citations appear in the same footnote, separate the citations by semi-colons [;], placing a full stop after the last one.

The works should be cited in descending order of persuasion.
[C] Repeat Citations

Cases and legislation should be cited in full the first time. When repeated, the case name will be abbreviated. For example:

1. McGinty v Western Australia (1996) 186 CLR 140 (‘McGinty’)

and, another example,

1. Lange v Australian Broadcasting Corporation (1997) 189 CLR 520 at 559–61 (‘Lange’)
2. Lange (1997) 189 CLR 520

Other sources should be cited as follows:

❖ Same material as the previous footnote — Ibid and Id

Ibid is used if the reference is to exactly the same citation as that immediately preceding it:

2. Ibid.

Id is used if the reference is the same work previously cited, but on a different page:

2. Id at 25.

Do not italicise these terms or place a comma after them.

Do not use these terms for legislation or cases.

❖ Same material as elsewhere in the document — Above and Below

In both the text and footnote citations, the words ‘above’ and ‘below’ should always be used in preference to their Latin words ‘supra’ and ‘infra’. However, preceding the word ‘above’ or ‘below’ please include the author’s surname, eg: Graycar, above n4.
If reference is being made to the same work at a different place, insert ‘at’ and a page number after the reference to the note.

If the initial footnote has multiple citations, subsequent reference to one source in that initial footnote should clearly indicate which source is being referred to, either in the text or in the subsequent footnote by including the author’s name or, where this is not helpful, including both author and abbreviated title.

2. QUOTATIONS

[A] General Format

Any material which is taken word for word from a source must NOT be altered to conform to the Review house style.

Single quotation marks are used for emphasis and actual short quotations.

Double quotations marks are reserved for quotes within quotes.

Quotations in footnotes should always run on and be enclosed in quotation marks. Do not indent quotes in footnotes.

[B] Short and Long Quotes

Short quotations use less than three lines. These should be included in the text and enclosed by single quotation marks. Do not indent:

> As Kirby J said, the Australian judge is ‘a riddle, wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma’.

▶ Note: this short-quotational style applies to quotations in footnotes, regardless of their length.

Long quotations exceed three lines. Begin these on a new line and INDENT the whole paragraph. Do not enclose them in quotation marks. Type with a smaller font size (preferably 10 point). Ensure to leave a line before and after the quoted passage:

> According to Kirby J:

> Judges are important in our country. Their importance increasingly extends beyond the courtroom...For most, the Judge emerges in court, hears the case, gives judgment and disappears again behind the curtain. He is, like Churchill’s Russia, a riddle, wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma.¹

> This issue should not be overlooked, as it highlights…
[C] Edited Quotes

❖ Additions

Any editorial additions or interpolations introduced by the author into quoted passages must be enclosed in square brackets.

Similarly, when capital letters opening quotes need to be added or removed to suit the sentence being quoted, use square brackets:

☞ [T]he Judge emerges in court, hears the case, gives judgment and disappears again behind the curtain.

❖ Adding emphasis in quotations

If added emphases are placed on particular words or phrases in a quoted passage or sentence by the author, these must be acknowledged in the following manner:

☞ No judge in England or Australia has yet written a revealing autobiography disclosing ‘all’ about his judicial life. Indeed, few have written anything beyond their judgments. As most disdain interviews…little is known about them or their ways. [Emphasis added.]

Note: the use of capital ‘E’ in ‘Emphasis and the full stop inside the brackets.

❖ Omissions from quotations

THREE dots (ellipsis) are used to indicate an omission from a quotation when the omitted portion is short: ‘…’

FOUR dots are used if the portions omitted are long; for eg when the omission has run to the end of the sentence and includes at least part of the next sentence if not more: ‘….’

☞ Judges are important in our country. Their importance increasingly extends beyond the courtroom …. For most, the Judge emerges in court, hears the case, gives judgment and disappears again behind the curtain. He is…a riddle, wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma.

❖ Errors or discriminatory terms in quoted passages

Spelling errors or discriminatory terms do not need to be edited or altered if being directly quoted.

However, the error or affected term in question may be followed by the italicised word ‘sic’ enclosed in square brackets:

☞ For most, the Judge emerges in court, hears the case, gives judgment and disappears again behind the curtain. He [sic] is…a riddle, wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma.

Where one of the parties is the Director of Public Prosecutions, abbreviate the name to DPP

❖ CCH Case Reporters

The CCH law reporters do not conform to the conventions regarding square/round brackets or the traditional mode of citations. The year, although placed in round brackets, is crucial to finding the case.

Please cite to page numbers rather than paragraphs:

[D] Statements Given During Argument

When citing a statement given during argument, the words ‘during argument’ should be included after the judge’s name.
[E] Citing Judges

Details on pinpoint citation generally are outlined in Part 1 [C]: Pinpoint Citation.

If more than one judge is being cited, place a comma after each pair of parentheses, followed by the page number and the next name in parentheses. Do not use the word ‘at’ every time:

[I] Identifying the Court

The name of the court may be included where the author believes identifying the court is important and not otherwise apparent. Jurisdiction should only be included if it is not apparent from the citation:
