

Indigenous Education Strategy

Objectives for Indigenous Education at the University of Sydney

The University remains committed to the empowerment and self-determination of Indigenous Australian people through education. The specific strategies for Indigenous education are:

- To improve access and participation to all academic programs of the University of Sydney for Indigenous Australians.
- To improve retention rates and successful outcomes for Indigenous Australian students at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
- To provide curricula and modes of course delivery which are informed by current research and the needs of Indigenous Australian communities.
- To recognise and promote understanding of and respect for Indigenous Australian peoples, their knowledge and cultures.
- To develop research activities by Indigenous Australian staff and students, especially research which responds to the needs of Indigenous Australian communities.
- To develop the staffing profile of Indigenous academic and general staff of the University.
- To ensure that Indigenous issues and knowledge are included in the core University goals of Learning and Teaching, Research and Community Engagement and in all activities
