PARKING

Sydney University Main Campus (Camperdown)

Parking is available close to main campus venues in designated areas. The best entry points are the main gates on City Road, and from Parramatta Road, near the corner of Glebe Point Road. There is also a parking station in Shepherd Street, off Cleveland Street near the corner of City Road, behind the Seymour Centre.

The University has a "pay-and-display" parking regime and heavy fines are imposed for non-compliance.

Parking costs after 3.00pm are $2.00 per hour to a maximum of $6.00. The ticket machines accept $1 and $2 coins only. The nearest change machine to the Carslaw Building is located in front of the Anderson Stuart Building, further along Eastern Avenue. There is also a change machine in the Shepherd Street Car Park.

University campus roads fall under the general road rules, meaning parking Infringement Notices are processed by the NSW Police Infringement Process Bureau. Any enquiries regarding Infringement Notices should be made per the instructions included with the notice. The Law Extension Committee is unable to pursue matters of parking Infringement Notices on behalf of students.

In recent sessions, students have reported ticketing machines and/or change machines to be out of order. If you have problems with ticketing or change machines, you should direct your enquiries to the Sydney University Traffic and Parking Office on (02) 9351 3336.

Sydney University St James Campus (Phillip St, City)

As you may imagine, parking space is at a premium around the Sydney University St James Campus.

There are no parking facilities for students within the St James Campus. There may be metered parking in the surrounding streets (Phillip Street, Elizabeth Street, Hunter Street, Macquarie Street, King Street) however students would need to make their own investigations.

Several commercial parking stations operate near the St James Campus: Secure Parking ((02) 8912 4900) have stations at 2 Chifley Square, 135 King Street & 187 Macquarie Street; Kings Parking ((02) 9221 2476) operate a station at 60 Elizabeth Street.

The Domain parking station may also be an option, with its moving footway bringing you fairly close to the St James Campus or there is the Cathedral Parking Station between the Cook and Phillip swimming pool complex and St Mary's Cathedral.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Sydney University Main Campus (Camperdown)

For lectures and weekend school classes held on the main campus, the most convenient entry point is the main City Road gate.

By train, the closest station is Redfern, from where you should turn left into Abercrombie Street then right into Codrington Street, which will take you to the City Road gates. You might find it more convenient to use Central Station, especially at night. The University security service runs free buses between the Fisher Library and Redfern railway station in the evening during the University’s semester. Note that the University's semester and the LEC semester do not always overlap.

Buses stop right outside the City Road entrance, and run frequently from Central Station and the CBD. Routes 422, 423, 426, 427, and 428 depart from Circular Quay and travel down Castlereagh Street, passing through Railway Square before stopping at the City Road entrance. Students can also enter from Parramatta Road, with the best entrance being University Avenue at the eastern end of Parramatta Road, near Glebe Point Road.

Parking at the University has a "pay-and-display" parking regime and heavy fines are imposed for non-compliance.

Sydney University St James Campus (Phillip Street, City)

The closest train stations to the Sydney University St James Campus are Martin Place and St. James. The Elizabeth Street exits of both stations are a few minutes walk from the St James Campus Building. There are many bus services that stop outside or near the St James Campus, including most Eastern Suburbs buses.

As you may imagine, parking space is at a premium around the St James Campus. There are no parking facilities for students within the building.
