

ENRICH

ENRICH aims to provide learners with an understanding of the issues relating to rural and remote health care service provision, and the need to work effectively with other disciplines to provide highest quality health care to indigenous and non indigenous communities.

INTER-PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Integrated approach to high quality health education in a remote setting

Broken Hill University
Department of Rural Health

For information on session dates and topics please contact the Danielle Keenan at the BH University Department on 08 8080 1237

For more information head to www.drh.med.usyd.edu.au