Dear Colleagues,

What used to be “Tuesday Talks” has now become “Words on Wednesday”.

The series of “Words on Wednesday” for 2017 are “open to all” - medical students, hospital staff, local doctors, and members of the community.

Time: 1.00 pm; Pre-talk light lunch: from 12.30pm
Venue: Auditorium, Level 2  Sydney Medical School Building
62 Derby Street Kingswood NSW 2747

Wednesday 15th March: Mr Barry Roots, Foundation Headmaster of Penrith Anglican College.
Topic: ‘Principals & Pompous Asses’ How do we best relate to people in our care?

Wednesday 17th May: Dr Patricia Weerakoon, Sexologist, Honorary Senior Lecturer, University of Sydney.
Topic: ‘Porn On The Brain’

Thursday 5th October: Speaker to be arranged

“I would certainly like to make you feel very welcome in attending. They are an ideal opportunity to meet and promote collegiality”
Adrian Sheen

‘Words on Wednesday’ are proudly sponsored by Nepean Medical Association and Barratt and Smith Pathology

Dr Adrian Sheen and Mr Barry Roots
Dr Patricia Weerakoon and Dr Adrian Sheen