

PROFESSOR DERRICK ARMSTRONG
Acting Deputy Provost (Learning & Teaching) and Pro-Vice-Chancellor

invites you to a briefing and discussion with

Mr David White

Director of Lifelong Learning, Education and Training Policy at the Education and Culture Directorate, European Commission

“Lifelong Learning and the University’s relationship with enrolled students and alumni”

9:30am – 11:00am

Monday 14th May 2007

Meeting Room 1, Darlington Centre, City Road

Mr White will be introduced by Dr. Rob Ellis, Director of eLearning, who will also chair the meeting.

Morning tea will be provided. For catering purposes, please email your registration to Miss Ara Levingston, Executive Assistant to Professor Derrick Armstrong on a.levingston@usyd.edu.au by Friday, 11th May. For further information, please contact Ara on Tel: (02) 9351 3517 or a.levingston@usyd.edu.au.

David White comes from Northern Ireland. He studied economics and politics at the Universities of Belfast, Manchester and London.

He worked in the British Government Economic Service, the Directorate General for Employment and Social Affairs, the Secretariat General and the Cabinet of President Jacques Delors. He was head of the Public Procurement Policy Unit and then head of the Legislative Policy Unit of the Industry Directorate General.

Mr White is now the director for Enterprise Policy, Director of Lifelong Learning, Education and Training Policy at the Education and Culture Directorate General.