

The Diana Temple Memorial Lecture 2010

Professor Susan Pond AM

"Two worlds of personalized medicine"

New Law School Lecture Theatre 101
The University of Sydney
Friday 15 October 2010, 1:00 – 2:00 pm

Supported by the University of Sydney Bosch Institute, the Australian and New Zealand Association for the Advancement of Science (ANZAAS), and the Women in Science Enquiry Network (WiSENET).

Enquiries: Prof Graham Johnston, Pharmacology, Phone 9351 6117; email grahamj@mail.usyd.edu.au

For more information on Diana Temple (1925-2006) see:
<http://sydney.edu.au/medicine/pharmacology/about/history/temple.php>
<http://wisenet-australia.org/issue73/contnt73.htm>

Prof Susan Pond AM FTSE, a University of Sydney medical graduate, has a distinguished record in medicine, science and business. Prof Pond has held senior positions in Johnson & Johnson, AusBiotech, the Australian Drug Evaluation Committee and at the University of Queensland and the University of California San Francisco. She was awarded a Member of the Order of Australia for services to clinical pharmacology and toxicology. Currently, Prof Pond is a Director of Commercialisation Australia, the Australian Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation and the Australian Academy of Technological Sciences and Engineering, and is a Professor in the Dow Sustainability Program at the United States Studies Centre at the University of Sydney.