Professor John Beveridge
Elective Term Medical Scholarship

Terms and conditions

The Professor John Beveridge Elective Term Medical Scholarship was established in 2015 after a generous donation from David and Bernadette Smith to support a student enrolled in the Sydney Medical School of the University of Sydney to undertake an elective term. The scholarship is to be awarded on the basis of financial need to an Australian citizen or permanent resident.

The scholarship is awarded under the following conditions:

1. The name of the scholarship will be the Professor John Beveridge Elective Term Medical Scholarship.
2. The scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of Sydney Medical School on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (International) on behalf of the selection committee to students enrolled in the degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery or Doctor of Medicine at the University of Sydney who have approval from their Clinical School Associate Dean to travel overseas for an Elective Term.
3. The scholarship is to be awarded on the basis of financial need to an Australian citizen or permanent resident.
4. The scholarship is intended to facilitate travel as part of an Elective Term only. The scholarship is tenable only for the institution/placement that the recipient applied and received the scholarship for. The recipient must notify Sydney Medical School Scholarships (sms.scholarships@sydney.edu.au) if there are any changes to the placement.
5. The value of the scholarship is $3000 and is tenable for the placement period only.
6. The scholarships may be held in conjunction with other scholarships excluding other Elective Term scholarships.
7. Travel insurance will be provided by the University of Sydney in accordance with University policy at: http://www.usyd.edu.au/audit_risk/insurance/travel/index.shtml. All other expenses must be met by the student.
8. The recipient may be required to refund all or part of the scholarship if he/she fails to complete the intended placement.
9. Sydney Medical School has the discretion not to award the scholarship if there are no applicants of sufficient merit and to share any award.
10. The number of scholarships awarded is dependent on available funds.
