

Garnet Halloran Prize
Terms & Conditions of Award

Established in 1965 by the bequest of $500 from Dr G.R. Halloran, to establish a prize 'for the best thesis on the subject of cancer of the head and/or chest, or other associated subjects'. The fund was augmented in 1972 by a further gift of $720 from Mrs Winifred L. Halloran, the widow of Dr Halloran.

The prize is awarded under the following conditions:

1. The name of the prize is the Garnet Halloran Prize.
2. The prize will be awarded annually to a University of Sydney student whose thesis for the Doctor of Philosophy degree was on the subject of cancer of the head and/or chest (or other associated subjects).
3. The prize will be awarded by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine on the recommendation of a committee nominated by the Dean.
4. The value of the prize is $900.
5. The prize will be awarded after 31st July each year to a student who has been awarded the degree within the preceding 12 months.
6. In the event of two or more graduates being deemed to be of equal merit the prize may be shared.
7. The awarding of the prize is subject to there being a candidate of sufficient merit and available funds.