Terms and Conditions

1. By completing and submitting the application form you agree to pay the balance of the program fees if your application for participation in the SCM International Music Summer School is accepted.
2. A non-refundable deposit of A$200 must accompany your application. The deposit will only be refunded if the Sydney Conservatorium of Music is unable to accept you into the program.
3. The balance of the program fees is due by 31 October, 2008. Your place in the SCM International Music Summer School may be cancelled if payment is not received prior to this date.
4. Withdrawal and Refund policy
Participants wishing to withdraw from the SCM International Music Summer School must confirm their withdrawal in writing. Withdrawals will be accepted prior to the commencement of the program, and refunds will be made as follows:
  - a. Withdrawal before 31 October, 2008 - full refund of fees (if already paid) less A$200 non-refundable deposit.
  - b. Withdrawal between 1 November, 2008 and program commencement – refund less 50% late withdrawal fee (A$1100)
  - c. Withdrawal following commencement of program – no refund
5. Your participation in the SCM International Music Summer School is subject to your gaining successful entry to Australia. You are responsible for all visa arrangements, including costs, and for ensuring that your visa is valid throughout the period of the program. Fees will not be refunded if you are unable to participate due to visa issues. The Sydney Conservatorium of Music will provide a declaration, signed by the person who will be responsible for your supervision during the program, once your place in the program has been confirmed.
6. You agree to comply with the statutes, rules and regulations of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music, the University of Sydney and the Women's College for the duration of the SCM International Music Summer School. The University of Sydney reserves the right to terminate your place in the SCM International Music Summer School program for failure to comply with the relevant statutes, rules and regulations. These statutes, rules and regulations govern a range of matters including curfews on noise, practice room access, college access, lock-out periods, security and safety, and general acceptable behaviour, and will be detailed in writing prior to the commencement of the program.
7. You are required to hold a valid travel insurance policy that covers medical, personal accident, personal liability and personal effects, for the duration of the SCM International Music Summer School. You may be required to provide the Sydney Conservatorium of Music with evidence of the required insurance policy at any time prior to or during the program. Musical instrument insurance for your personal instrument is highly recommended.
8. The Sydney Conservatorium of Music, the University of Sydney and the Women's College, and their employees, agents and representatives, expressly and fully disclaim any liability whatsoever in relation to any claim, action, suit, demand, course of action, expenses or costs you may have now and in the future, including in relation to or arising out of any personal injury, death, property damage or loss sustained by you as a result of your participation in the SCM International Music Summer School.
9. The Sydney Conservatorium of Music reserves the right to make alterations to the program including substitution of tutors and teachers as may become necessary without notice.
10. The Sydney Conservatorium of Music reserves the right to cancel the SCM International Music Summer School in the event of low participant numbers. Participants will be advised of any cancellation of the SCM International Music Summer School prior to 31 October 2008. The Sydney Conservatorium of Music will refund all fees paid, including deposits, but will not be liable for any losses arising from other costs, including airfares and visa costs.
11. By completing and submitting the application form, you agree that your application for and participation in the SCM International Music Summer School will be governed in all respects by the laws of New South Wales, Australia.
