Research Scholarships and Funding Information

Neuroscience and Mental Health

2015 Sydney Achievers International Scholarships: Up to 100 of these prestigious Scholarships will be offered in 2014 to high achieving, academically meritorious, international students, inviting them to enjoy the Sydney experience at one of the finest institutions of higher education in the world. For information: http://sydney.edu.au/scholarships/prospective/sydney-achievers.shtml

International Postgraduate Research Scholarships (IPRS). The IPRS scheme is funded by the Australian Government and provides tuition fees to top quality international postgraduate students who wish to enrol in a research degree at Australian universities. Applications are assessed on academic merit and research potential. In addition to the IPRS, the University of Sydney awards an International Postgraduate Award (IPA) to IPRS holders. The IPA provides a stipend/living allowance to all IPRS recipients. Please see: http://sydney.edu.au/future-students/international/postgraduate/research/supplementary-information-scholarship.shtml

University of Sydney International Scholarship (USydIS): The University of Sydney invites candidates who are eligible to undertake a Postgraduate Research Degree or Master's by Research program at this University to apply for the University of Sydney International Research Scholarship (USydIS). The objective of the USydIS is to attract top quality international postgraduate students to undertake research projects which will enhance the University's research activities. The USydIS is open to all research disciplines however participation in the USydIS program each semester is at the discretion of the Dean of each faculty. For information: http://sydney.edu.au/future-students/international/postgraduate/research/supplementary-information-scholarship.shtml

Australian Postgraduate Awards (APA) and University of Sydney Postgraduate Awards (UPA): APAs are Commonwealth Government scholarships awarded to students of exceptional research potential to undertake a higher degree by research at an Australian university. The scholarships are provided to assist with general living costs. UPAs are available in 2014 and they are similar to the APA in terms of tenure and benefits. Eligible APA applicants are automatically considered for these awards.

Vice-Chancellor’s Research Scholarships (VCRS): VCRS are offered each year to attract students with an outstanding track record of academic achievement and research potential to pursue full-time PhD studies at the University of Sydney. The VCRS will be awarded by the Vice-Chancellor on recommendation by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) and the Academic Board’s Postgraduate Awards Sub-Committee. Academic excellence (e.g. a University Medal) and outstanding research potential will be the selection criteria. http://sydney.edu.au/scholarships/research/postgraduate_awards.shtml#VCRS

Endeavour Awards Program: The Australian Government’s internationally competitive, merit-based scholarship program providing opportunities for citizens of the Asia-Pacific, the Middle East, Europe and the Americas to undertake study, research and professional development in Australia. Awards are also available for Australians to undertake study, research and professional development abroad. For information, https://aei.gov.au/scholarships-and-fellowships/pages/default.aspx

Faculty of Medicine:
http://sydney.edu.au/scholarships/research/medical_scholarships.shtml#aar

Faculty of Health Sciences:

Faculty of Science

Faculty of Pharmacy
http://sydney.edu.au/pharmacy/current-students/scholarships/

Scholarships for international postgraduate students

For scholarships offered to citizens of specific countries:
http://sydney.edu.au/international/resources/scholarships/

University of Sydney Research Support: http://sydney.edu.au/research_support/
University of Sydney Research Fellowships: http://sydney.edu.au/research/fellowships/