6.1.2 the voting paper shall contain—
6.1.2.1 instructions as to the manner in which the voting paper shall be completed;
6.1.2.2 the names of all duly nominated candidates arranged in an order to be determined by lot; and
6.1.2.3 a rectangle opposite and to the left of the name of each candidate.
6.2 In the case of other elections—
6.2.1 The Secretary to Senate shall give to each Fellow for each election a separate and similar slip of paper headed 'Voting Paper' and containing instructions as to the manner in which the voting paper is to be completed and a column of rectangles down the left hand edge of the paper;
6.2.2 each Fellow shall write on the voting paper opposite the rectangles printed on it the names of the candidates in the order in which they were nominated.

Instructions for voting
7.1 The instructions for completing the voting paper shall provide that—

7.1.1 in the case of a ballot to fill one vacancy,

7.1.1.1 the voter shall vote for all candidates; and

7.1.1.2 the voter shall vote by placing the figure ‘1’ in the rectangle opposite and to the left of the name of the candidate for whom the voter votes as first preference and by placing the figures ‘2’ and ‘3’ in the rectangles opposite and to the left of the names of the candidates for whom the voter votes as second and third preference, and so on, until the voter has voted for all candidates; and

7.1.2 in the case of a ballot to fill more than one vacancy,

7.1.2.1 the voter shall mark the voting paper by making a cross in the rectangle opposite the name of each candidate voted for; and

7.1.2.2 the voter shall vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled.

Invalid voting papers
8.1 The Secretary to Senate shall reject any voting paper that is not completed in accordance with the instructions contained in it, or upon which the numbers indicating the order of preference are not consecutive, or upon which the voter has voted for more candidates than the number of vacancies to be filled or for fewer candidates than the number of vacancies to be filled, or that is otherwise invalid, and in any case of doubt as to the validity of a voting paper the Secretary to Senate’s decision shall be final.

Conduct of ballots to fill one vacancy
9.1 The procedure for the counting of votes in a ballot to fill one vacancy shall be as follows—

9.1.1 After any invalid votes have been rejected, the Secretary to Senate shall count the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate.

9.1.2 The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be declared elected.

9.1.3 If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes on the first count, the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and each voting paper counted to the excluded candidate shall be counted to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter’s preference.

9.1.4 If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, that candidate shall be declared elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate with the fewest votes and counting each of the candidate’s voting papers to the continuing candidates next in the order of the voter’s preference shall be repeated by the Secretary to Senate until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes, and the Secretary to Senate shall declare that candidate elected.

9.1.5 Where in the process of counting there is more than one candidate with the fewest votes the candidate to be excluded shall be determined by the Secretary to Senate by lot.
Conduct of ballots to fill more than one vacancy

10.1 The procedure for the counting of votes in a ballot to fill more than one vacancy shall be as follows:

10.1.1 The Secretary to Senate shall reject any voting paper in which a voter has voted for more candidates than the number of vacancies to be filled or for fewer candidates than the number of vacancies to be filled or which is otherwise invalid, and in any case of doubt as to the validity of a voting paper the Secretary to Senate’s decision shall be final.

10.1.2 The Secretary to Senate shall rank the candidates in descending order of the number of votes received by each candidate.

10.1.3 Where two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes, the Secretary to Senate shall—

10.1.3.1 write the name of each candidate concerned on separate and similar slips of paper;

10.1.3.2 fold the slips so as to prevent identification; and

10.1.3.3 mix the slips and draw the slips at random, and for the purposes only of ranking among those candidates, a candidate whose name is drawn before the name of another candidate shall be deemed to have received one less vote than the candidate whose name is drawn next.

10.1.4 The Secretary to Senate shall declare elected the candidate who has received the highest number of votes and such further candidates in descending order of the rank as may be required to fill the remaining vacancies, if any.

Casual vacancies

11.1 An election shall be held in accordance with these resolutions to fill a casual vacancy.
