FACULTY OF PHARMACY - FINAL YEAR ASSESSMENT PROVISIONS 2016

(1) These provisions apply to all final year coursework students.

(2) Additional assessment in final year will only be permitted, with permission of the Faculty, if:
   (a) the student has failed only one assessment task in the entire final year of study;
   (b) the failed assessment task must be passed to satisfy the requirements of a single unit of study; and
   (c) the student would otherwise be entitled to graduate.

(3) Students who do not meet the requirements of (2) (a) above, will not be permitted to undertake additional assessments and must re-enrol in, and successfully complete, the failed units of study.

(4) The additional assessment will be in the form determined by the Faculty. This may include one or more of the following, or other tasks as specified by the Faculty.
   (a) Supplementary examinations.
   (b) Additional placements.
   (c) Tutorials.
   (d) Lectures.
   (e) Lab sessions.

(5) These additional assessments will be conducted during the Special Consideration Additional Assessment period at the end of semester two.

   Note: The dates for the Special Consideration Additional Assessment period are set by the Faculty at the beginning of each year and are published at: http://sydney.edu.au/pharmacy/current-students/

(6) Students who pass the additional assessment will receive a pass grade of 50 for the unit of study.

(7) Students who fail the additional assessment must re-enrol in and pass the failed unit of study.

(8) Students who believe they are eligible to apply for additional assessment must contact the Curriculum and Teaching Support Advisor in the Faculty Administration Office on 9036 9293, or email pharmacy.teaching@sydney.edu.au as soon as possible after receiving their results.
