1 Name of policy

This is the Under 18 International Students Policy 2016.

2 Commencement

This policy commences on 1 July 2016.

3 Policy is binding

Except to the extent that a contrary intention is expressed, this policy binds the University, entities operating under the University’s CRICOS Provider Code 00026A, staff, students and affiliates.
4 Statement of intent

This policy:

(a) provides for appropriate accommodation, support and welfare arrangements for international students who are under 18 years of age; and

(b) meets the requirements of Part B, Standard 5 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018.

5 Application

(1) This policy applies to:

(a) the University;

(b) Taylors College, in respect of the University of Sydney Foundation Program;

(c) any entity operating under the University’s CRICOS Provider Code 00026A; and

(d) international students who are under 18 years of age at the commencement date, until they turn 18 or cease to be a student of the University.

6 Definitions

In this policy:

- accommodation provider means a person or organisation that is responsible for providing a student’s accommodation during the approval period.

- approval period has the meaning given to it by subclause 8(3).

- commencement date means the date on which:

  - a student arrives in Australia to attend their course for the first time; or

  - the University assumes responsibility for the accommodation, support and welfare arrangements of a student who is already residing in Australia.

- delegate has the meaning given in the University of Sydney (Delegations of Authority- Administrative Functions) Rule 2016. At the date of this policy, that is:

  an employee, member or Committee of Senate, or any other person or entity to whom or to which a delegation has been made by Senate

- Department means the Commonwealth Department of Home Affairs.
international student means a student who is not:

- an Australian citizen;
- a permanent resident of Australia; or
- a New Zealand citizen;

and who is:

- a temporary student visa holder.

relative means a grandparent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew, or a step grandparent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew.

student means an international student who is:

- enrolled in an award course of the University;
- enrolled in a non-award course of the University; or
- enrolled in a course offered by any other entity operating under the University's CRICOS Provider Code 00026A.

Note: A student enrolled in the University of Sydney Foundation Program run by Taylor's College is an international student for the purposes of this policy.

Note: A student enrolled in a non-award course offered by the Centre for English Teaching is an international student for the purposes of this policy.

third party provider means any entity operating under the University's CRICOS Provider Code 00026A, including Taylors College.

welfare provider means a person or organisation that is responsible for providing a student's support and welfare during the approval period.

Taylors College means Taylors College Sydney, operated by Study Group Australia Pty Ltd.

7 Enrolment of international students under 18 years of age

(1) The University and its third-party providers will only enrol international students who are under 18 years of age at their commencement date if the relevant delegate is satisfied that:

(a) the student will live in Australia with a parent or legal guardian;

(b) the student will live in Australia with a relative over 21 years of age and of good character, who has been nominated by a parent or legal guardian and approved by the Department; or

(c) the student will live in Australia under accommodation, support and welfare arrangements that have been approved by the University.
(2) The University and its third-party providers will not enrol international students who are under 16 years of age at their commencement date under any circumstances.

(3) The University and its third party providers will not charge international students any fee or require any payment for, or in connection with, the approval of a student’s accommodation, support and welfare arrangements in accordance with subclause 7(1)(c).

8 Checking and monitoring the suitability of arrangements

(1) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) will determine and publish procedures that:

   (a) specify the University's requirements for students to whom subclause 7(1)(c) applies; and
   (b) provide for appropriate monitoring and checking that such requirements are met.

   Note: See the Under 18 International Students Procedures 2016

(2) The relevant delegate will only approve the enrolment of students to whom paragraph 7(1)(c) applies consistently with those procedures.

(3) Approved accommodation, support and welfare arrangements must:

   (a) begin no more than 14 and no less than seven days prior to the student’s commencement date; and
   (b) remain in place:

      (i) for the duration of the student’s enrolment, plus seven days; or
      (ii) until the student turns 18 (“the approval period”).

(4) Students must not travel to Australia before the commencement of the approval period.

(5) Students must not change their accommodation, support or welfare arrangements during the approval period, without the written approval of:

   (a) the relevant delegate; and
   (b) their parent or legal guardian, or their welfare provider.

9 Required agreements

(1) If a student requires University approved accommodation, support and welfare arrangements as referred to in subclause 7(1)(c), the student and their parent or legal guardian must enter into and provide evidence of the following agreements:

   (a) a binding agreement with the student’s accommodation provider; and
   (b) a binding agreement with the student’s welfare provider;

   on or before the date of accepting the offer of admission to the course.

(2) If a student requires University approved accommodation, support and welfare arrangements as referred to in subclause 7(1)(c), the student must accept the following terms and conditions, which will be detailed in the student’s offer of admission:
(a) The student must agree to:

(i) continue living in the approved accommodation until they are 18 years of age, unless alternative accommodation is approved in writing by the University and a parent or legal guardian, or the student's welfare provider consistently with subclause 8(5);

(ii) provide the University with up-to-date records of, and inform the University of any changes to, the student's contact details, including the contact details of the student's parent(s), legal guardian or any adult responsible for the student's welfare;

(iii) maintain one-to-one contact with their welfare provider, and attend regular phone and face-to-face meetings; and

(iv) act responsibly, including being aware of their responsibilities under Australian law, and avoid illicit activities and risk-taking behaviour.

(b) The student must acknowledge that:

(i) the University is not responsible for any fees and costs associated with their accommodation and welfare arrangements;

(ii) the University is not legally responsible for the student's actions whilst in Australia; and

(iii) the University is entitled to withdraw approval for the student's accommodation, support and welfare if the student is found to have breached these terms and conditions.

(3) A binding agreement with the student's accommodation provider (referred to in subclause 9(1)(a)) must require the accommodation provider to meet the University's minimum standards for the relevant category of accommodation providers.

Note: See the schedules to the Under 18 International Students Procedures 2016

(4) A binding agreement with the student's welfare provider (referred to in subclause 9(1)(b)) must require the welfare provider to meet the University's minimum standards for welfare providers.

Note: See the schedules to the Under 18 International Students Procedures 2016

10 Termination, suspension and cancellation of enrolment

(1) Where the University or its third-party provider terminates, suspends or cancels a student's enrolment, the University will continue to monitor the suitability of the accommodation, support and welfare arrangements for that student until:

(a) the student is accepted by another registered provider who assumes responsibility for approving the student's accommodation, support and welfare arrangements;

(b) the student leaves Australia;

(c) the Department approves care of the student by a parent or nominated relative;

(d) other suitable arrangements are made for the student; or

(e) the University reports to the Department:
(i) that it can no longer approve the arrangements for the student; or
(ii) that it has concerns for the student’s welfare and is unable to contact the student after making all reasonable efforts to locate the student.

(2) Where a student appeals the termination, suspension or cancellation of their enrolment, the University will continue to monitor the suitability of the accommodation, support and welfare arrangements for that student until:

(a) all internal and external appeals have been exhausted;
(b) other suitable arrangements are made for the student; or
(c) the University reports to the Department that it can no longer approve the arrangements for the student.

11 Transfers to and from another registered education provider

(1) If the University or its third-party provider enrolls a student under the age of 18 who has welfare arrangements approved by another registered education provider, the University will:

(a) negotiate the transfer date for welfare arrangements with the other provider, to ensure there is no gap;
(b) inform the student of their obligation to maintain their current welfare arrangements until the transfer date, or have alternative welfare arrangements approved or return to their home country until the new approved welfare arrangements take place;
(c) ensure it has written confirmation from the student’s parent(s) or legal guardian endorsing the transfer; and
(d) where the student is not being cared for in Australia by a parent or relative, confirm it accepts responsibility for approving the student’s accommodation and welfare arrangements.

12 Termination of welfare arrangements

(1) If the University or its third party provider is unable to contact a student and has concerns for the student’s welfare, the University or its third party provider will make all reasonable efforts to locate the student, including notifying the police and any other relevant Commonwealth or State agencies as soon as practicable.

(2) If the University is no longer able to approve the welfare arrangements of a student, the University will:

(a) make all reasonable efforts to ensure that the student’s parents or legal guardians are notified immediately;
(b) notify the Department within 24 hours.

13 Compliance reviews

(1) The Compliance Unit in the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) portfolio will review compliance with this policy and report to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education), on an annual basis.
(2) Each annual report must be approved by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) and include:

(a) statistical data, including student numbers and courses of study;
(b) results of accommodation provider and welfare provider audits; and
(c) details of student complaints and outcomes.
