1 Name of policy

This is the Student Charter 2020.

2 Commencement

This policy commences on 1 January 2020.

3 Policy is binding

Except to the extent that a contrary intention is expressed, this policy binds the University, staff, students and affiliates.

4 Statement of intent

This charter:

(1) sets out the principles that are core to the reciprocal partnership between the University and its students;
(2) explains the mutual expectations of students and the University to create a productive and safe environment for learning;

(3) reflects the University's values of:
   (a) respect and integrity;
   (b) diversity and inclusion;
   (c) openness and engagement; and
   (d) courage and creativity.

Note: See the University's Strategic Plan 2016-2020.

5 Application

(1) This policy applies to:
   (a) the University, students, staff, and affiliates and participants in continuing educational activities and the Centre for English Teaching.
   and
   (b) any University-related conduct or activities.

(2) This policy must be read in conjunction with University Rules, policies, procedures, faculty resolutions and course resolutions.

6 Definitions

affiliate has the meaning given in the Code of Conduct – Staff and Affiliates. As at the date of this policy this is:
   a clinical title holder, an adjunct, conjoint and honorary appointee, a consultant or contractor to the University, an office holder in a University entity, a member of any University Committee and any other person appointed or engaged by the University to perform duties or functions on its behalf.

continuing education participant means a person who is enrolled in any form of continuing education or extra-curricular education at the University.

exchange student means a person who is:
   • not admitted to an award course at the University;
   • admitted to a formally approved program of study at an overseas institution with which the University has an exchange arrangement; and
   • enrolled in one or more units of study at the University under the terms of that exchange arrangement.

non-award participant means a person who is not admitted to an award course and is not an exchange student or study abroad student, but is enrolled in a unit of study at the University.

staff or staff member means an employee of the University, including a casual employee.
student means a person who is:

- currently admitted to candidature in an award course at the University;
- a non-award student, exchange student or study abroad student.

7 Student expectations of the University

The full extent of the University’s obligations towards students are enshrined in University Rules, policies, procedures, faculty resolutions and course resolutions. Students can expect the University to:

(a) put the safety of all students, staff, affiliates and visitors to its campuses as its highest priority;

(b) create and sustain a supportive learning environment that enables students to realise their full potential;

(c) foster educational excellence and engaged inquiry through supportive learning environments, appropriate resources and a culture of continuous improvement;

Note: See clause 8 of the Learning and Teaching Policy 2015

(d) welcome student participation in academic governance and create opportunities for students to share feedback;

Note: See clause 3.4 of the University of Sydney (Academic Board Rule) 2017 and clause 11 of the Learning and Teaching Policy 2015

(e) treat students fairly, honestly, transparently and with courtesy, regardless of gender, religion, race, sexuality or disability;

Note: See the Bullying, Harassment and Discrimination Prevention Policy 2015, Student Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment Policy 2018

(f) protect academic freedom and safeguard the presentation of ideas through robust, informed and respectful debate that is free from discrimination and harassment in line with University policy;

Note: See the Charter of Academic Freedom and clause 2.1 (2) of the University of Sydney (Academic Board Rule) 2017

(g) maintain high academic standards;

Note: See clause 2.1 (2) of the University of Sydney (Academic Board Rule) 2017 and 8 (2) of the Learning and Teaching Policy 2015

(h) protect personal or health information that is held by the University;

Note: See the Privacy Policy 2017

(i) respond to complaints and work collaboratively to resolve them fairly; and

Note: See clause 8 of the Resolution of Complaints Policy 2015 and the Student Complaints Procedures 2015

(j) comply with University Rules, policies, procedures, local provisions and faculty and course resolutions.
8 University expectations of students

(1) The University expects the following personal conduct from students:

(a) treat others with respect regardless of gender, religion, race, sexuality or disability;

(b) act honestly and ethically in all dealings with the University and members of its community;
