 - (a) telling them what the issue is;
 - (b) asking them to stop or to behave differently; and
 - (c) where appropriate, keeping a written record of this action.
- (2) This clause does not apply to complaints concerning alleged criminal conduct, including sexual assault.

7 Making a complaint

- (1) Students and applicants who are unable to resolve a problem or concern through informal resolution, or consider informal resolution inappropriate, can make a complaint by contacting the Student Affairs Unit.

Note: See clauses 14 and 15 of the Resolution of Complaints Policy 2015, in relation to confidentiality and disclosure of information.

- (2) Subject to subclause 7(6), if any person other than the Student Affairs Unit receives or otherwise becomes aware of a complaint on behalf of an applicant or student, they must refer the complaint to the Student Affairs Unit.

Note: See clause 11 for information on investigations.

- (5) Complainants are required to engage with the complaints process, and to provide sufficient details of their complaint to permit the University to conduct a preliminary assessment and investigation, as appropriate.

Note: The University is unable to resolve complaints from complainants who decline to provide information about the respondent (if relevant), or who otherwise fail to meet these requirements.

- (6) If a person receives a complaint alleging breaches by a student of professionalism standards, that complaint should be handled by the relevant delegate in accordance with the relevant professionalism provisions.

8 Preliminary assessment by Student Affairs Unit

- (1) Upon receiving a complaint, the Student Affairs Unit must record the following details, at the earliest possible opportunity, in the designated student case management system:
 - (a) the complainant's name and contact details;
 - (b) a brief summary of the issues raised in the complaint;
 - (c) the identity of any persons named in the complaint; and
 - (d) the outcome or remedy sought by the complainant.
- (2) The Student Affairs Unit must acknowledge receipt within 5 working days and notify the complainant of the relevant next steps.
- (3) Where the complaint relates to the conduct of a student, the Student Affairs Unit will assess the seriousness of the complaint and determine the appropriate course of action to deal with the matter. This assessment may involve, as appropriate:
 - (a) convening discussions with the relevant parties;
 - (b) collating and reviewing any relevant documentary material; and
 - (c) determining whether the matter is appropriate for assisted resolution under clause 9 or referral under clause 10.
- (4) Each of the parties may bring a support person to any discussion.
- (5) The Student Affairs Unit may decide to take no further action where:
 - (a) the person who made the complaint has provided insufficient detail or evidence of the issue to enable the matter to be properly assessed;
 - (b) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or malicious;
 - (c) the complaint relates to alleged conduct that occurred more than 12 months before making the complaint and no further occurrence has happened in the ensuing 12 months.
- (6) At the conclusion of the preliminary assessment, the Student Affairs Unit must give the complainant (and, where appropriate, the respondent) a written statement of the outcome of the preliminary assessment, which includes:
 - (a) reasons for the outcome; and
 - (b) details of any right to seek an appeal under clause 14.
- (7) Where reasonable, the preliminary assessment should be conducted within 20 working days of lodging the complaint.
- (8) Where these timeframes are not reasonable, the Student Affairs Unit must advise the complainant of the reasons for the delay, and of the projected timeframe for conclusion of the preliminary assessment.
- (9) Subject to subclause 8(10), where a complaint about a student alleges conduct that might, if proven:
 - (a) constitute misconduct;
 - (b) involve possible criminal behaviour; or

- (c) involve risk to others;

then:

the Student Affairs Unit must refer the complaint to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar) for handling in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016 or, if appropriate, to the Office of General Counsel for consideration of whether the matter should be referred to the police in accordance with clause 17 of the Resolution of Complaints Policy 2015.

Note: The University is required to report information about the commission of a serious indictable offence to the police in accordance with section 316 of the Crimes Act 1900 (NSW).

- (10) The Student Affairs Unit may decide not to refer a complaint of sexual assault or sexual harassment to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar) for handling in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016 if the complainant objects to the referral.
- (11) Where a complaint:
- (a) relates to the conduct of a staff member or affiliate (or a worker in the case of a complaint of bullying); or
 - (b) alleges that a policy or procedure of the University relating primarily to staff matters or its application (or both) is in breach of the Bullying, Harassment and Discrimination Prevention Policy 2015 or another University policy within the scope of these procedures;
- the Student Affairs Unit must:
- (c) consult with, and refer the complaint (as it relates to the staff member or affiliate or policy or procedure) to Workplace Relations; and
 - (d) advise the complainant of the referral.
- (12) Where a complaint relates to alleged bullying, harassment or discrimination by a staff member or affiliate (or a worker in the case of a complaint of bullying), the procedures set out in clauses 8 to 13 and 15 of the Bullying, Harassment and Discrimination Resolution Procedures 2015 will apply in place of the procedures set out in clauses 9 to 13 and 15 below. Clause 14 below will continue to apply.
- Note: Contact details for Workplace Relations are provided on its website.
- (13) Where the Student Affairs Unit determines, after consultation with the relevant faculty, that the complaint relates primarily to alleged breaches of professionalism standards, the Student Affairs Unit must refer the complaint to the relevant faculty for handling in accordance with the relevant professionalism provisions.
- (14) Where a complaint is about the content or application of a University policy or procedure rather than the conduct of particular individual(s):
- (a) the complaint will not be considered to have an individual respondent;
 - (b) the relevant delegate will be the administrator of the policy or procedure; and
 - (c) the relevant parties in subclause 8(3)(a) may include any person who has knowledge of, or interest in, the policy or procedure.

 - (b) an apology;
 - (c) facilitated discussion, including mediation or conciliation;
 - (d) an agreed plan of action to avoid further incidents; and

- (2) Where reasonable, the assisted resolution process should be completed within 20 working days of the assessment referred to in clause 8.
- (3) Where 20 working days is not reasonable, the Student Affairs Unit must advise the complainant of the reasons for the delay, and of the projected timeframe for resolution.

10 Determination when assisted resolution is unsuccessful or inappropriate

- (1) Where assisted resolution is unsuccessful or considered inappropriate, the Student Affairs Unit must determine whether:
 - (a) the matter should be referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar) for handling in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016;
 - (b) the matter should be referred to the University's Security Service;
 - (c) the matter should be referred to the Office of General Counsel for consideration of whether the matter should be referred to the police in accordance with clause 17 of the Resolution of Complaints Policy 2015;
 - (d) the matter should be investigated under clause 11; or
 - (e) any other further action should be taken.
- (2) Where reasonable, the determination should be made within 20 working days of the assessment referred to in clause 8 or from the date that the Student Affairs Unit declares that assisted resolution has been unsuccessful.
- (3) Where these timeframes are not reasonable, the Student Affairs Unit must advise the complainant of the reasons for the delay, and of the projected timeframe for conclusion of the determination.
- (4) Subject to subclause 10(5), circumstances in which a determination to take no further action may be made include where:
 - (a) the person who made the complaint has provided insufficient detail or evidence of the issue to enable the matter to be properly investigated;
 - (b) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or malicious;

- (c) the complaint relates to alleged conduct that occurred more than 12 months before making the complaint and no further occurrence has happened in the ensuing 12 months.

- (6) The Student Affairs Unit must write to the person who made the complaint (and, where appropriate, the respondent), setting out the reasons for the determination.

11 Investigation

- (1) The University may initiate an investigation:
 - (a) for serious complaints (as determined by the University in its absolute discretion, taking into account the complainant's views and circumstances);
 - (b) where assisted resolution is unsuccessful or not appropriate; or
 - (c) in other circumstances, where the University considers it to be appropriate.
- (2) Except where otherwise required by University rules, protocols, policies and procedures, investigators may determine their own procedures.
- (3) Investigators will provide respondents with:
 - (a) the allegations in sufficient detail to ensure that they have a reasonable opportunity to respond; and
 - (b) a reasonable period of time within which to respond to the allegations.
- (4) Investigators must make findings of fact and may make recommendations for resolving complaints, in accordance with University rules, protocols, policies and procedures. These recommendations may include a recommendation that the complaint be referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar) for handling in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016.
- (5) Investigators must give the University written reasons for their findings of fact and (if relevant) their recommendations. The reasons must provide enough detail for complainants and respondents to determine whether there are sufficient grounds for an appeal.
- (6) Where reasonable, the investigation should be concluded within 30 working days of the determination referred to in clause 10.
- (7) Where 30 working days is not reasonable, the Student Affairs Unit must advise the complainant of the reasons for the delay, and of the projected timeframe for conclusion of the investigation.

- (10) If the matter is not referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar), the Student Affairs Unit must take into account the investigation findings and any recommendations of the investigator, and give the complainant (and, where appropriate, the respondent) a written statement of the outcome of the complaint, which includes:

- (a) reasons for the outcome; and
- (b) details of any rights to an appeal under clause 14.

12 Referral to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar)

- (a) the matter will be treated as a complaint for the purpose of this procedure;
- (b) the Student Affairs Unit must make an assessment in accordance with clause 8 of these procedures; and
- (c) these procedures will also apply to the determination of whether a vexatious or malicious complaint has been made.

14 Appeals

- (1) Potential appellants should contact the Student Affairs Unit for information on appeals.
- (2) Appellants may appeal on the basis of alleged failure of due process only. The University will not consider appeals based solely on the outcome of the complaint.
- (3) Appeals must be lodged:
 - (a) in writing with the Student Affairs Unit; and

- (b) within 20 working days of the date on which the appellant was notified of the outcome of the complaint.
- (4) In exceptional circumstances, as determined by the Head of the Student Affairs Unit in their absolute discretion, the Head of the Student Affairs Unit may accept an appeal lodged out of time.
- (5) Appellants must set out in their written appeal their reasons for believing that due process has not been observed in the preliminary assessment or investigation.
- (6) The Director Compliance and Student Affairs, in the Office of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Registrar), will assess whether an appeal has been validly made under this clause and must notify the appellant of the outcome of this assessment.
- (7) Appeals must be considered by senior staff members. Generally this should be a Deputy Vice-Chancellor who has not otherwise been involved in the complaint, and who does not have an actual or reasonably perceived conflict of interests in regard to the parties to the complaint, or the matters that are the subject of complaint.
- (8) Except at the absolute discretion of the staff member considering the appeal:
 - (a) appeals will be conducted on the basis of written material; and
