Graham Frederick Ramsey Jew Scholarship

The Sydney School of Veterinary Science is pleased to announce the Graham Frederick Ramsey Jew Scholarship.
Starting in 2017, this scholarship is available to domestic students to assist with the costs of accommodation and general living expenses whilst studying at University.

Scholarship value and duration

The Scholarship is valued at a $6,500 per annum.
The scholarship is tenable for the duration of the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine for a commencing recipient or remainder of full time candidature for a continuing recipient.

Eligibility criteria

- Applicants must be Australian Citizens or Australian Permanent Residents.
- Currently enrolled full time in the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.
- And demonstrate financial need.

Background

- The Graham Frederick Ramsey Jew Scholarship is open to students committed to the veterinary science profession and currently enrolled full-time in the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (Years 1 - 4).

Selection

- Selection is based on a high level of academic achievement, demonstrated financial need, personal statements and letters from two Referees. The Scholarship will be awarded by a selection Committee which will include the Dean/Head of Veterinary Science or their nominated delegate and two other academic staff from Veterinary Science at the University of Sydney.

Ongoing eligibility

- To continue receiving the scholarship, the recipient must maintain a full-time enrolment in the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.
- The recipient must maintain a minimum semester average mark of 65% each semester.

See overleaf for Conditions of Award ..
Graham Frederick Ramsey Jew Scholarship
Conditions of Award

1. Background

a. Commencing in 2017, the Graham Frederick Ramsey Jew Scholarship was established to assist domestic students with the costs of accommodation and other living costs, while studying veterinary science at the University of Sydney.

2. Eligibility

a. The Scholarship is open to domestic students (Australian citizens and Australian permanent residents only) currently enrolled full-time in the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) at the University of Sydney.

b. Applicants must also demonstrate financial need.

3. Selection

a. The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of applicants' prior academic merit, and statement outlining how the Scholarship will assist them with their educational and career goals.

b. Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate financial need.

c. The Scholarship will be awarded by a Committee which will include the Dean/Head of Veterinary Science, or their nominated delegate, and two other academic staff from Veterinary Science at the University of Sydney.

4. Value

a. The Scholarship is valued up to a total $26,000 at $6,500 per annum for a maximum of four years (tenable during full-time candidacy in the DVM) and will be paid in equal installments after census date each semester.

b. If a recipient has completed part of their DVM studies, the Scholarship tenure will vary and will only be available for the remaining full-time duration of their DVM program.

c. The Scholarship cannot be deferred and it cannot be transferred to another course or for a purpose unrelated to the Scholarship eligibility/purpose.

d. The Scholarships will only be awarded providing funds are available.

5. Ongoing eligibility requirements

a. Recipients must maintain an average mark of 65 or above each semester over a full-time load of 24 credit points to retain this Scholarship.

6. Termination

a. The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:

I. withdraws from the DVM,
II. suspends their studies,
III. does not maintain satisfactory academic progress,
IV. commences part-time study without prior approval,
V. withdraws from/cancels their placement,
VI. undertakes a placement in a non-eligible location, and
VII. if an allegation of student misconduct is upheld.