Background

Bequeathed in 1986 by The Estate of Nhilla Dumbrell to establish a student scholarship in piano.

Selection criteria

- Awarded on academic merit as assessed by portfolio, performance or other entry criteria for the normal full-time duration of the recipient’s degree course

Ongoing eligibility

- Continuation of the Scholarship each year is dependent on the recipient maintaining an excellent academic record with an annual average mark (AAM) of at least 75, that is, at Distinction level
- Students who transfer to another degree within the same faculty may also transfer their scholarship with the written approval of the Dean.
- Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student’s capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Scholarships Officer in the Faculty.

Payment schedule

- Payment will be made in equal instalments after the census dates.

Conditions of award

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
TERMS & CONDITIONS
SC0118 - The David & Nhila Dumbrell Scholarship

Bequeathed in 1986 by The Estate of Nhilla Dumbrell to establish a student scholarship in piano.

This scholarship is open to full-time undergraduate and postgraduate students (both local and international) enrolled at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Awarded on academic merit as assessed by portfolio, performance or other entry criteria for the normal full-time duration of the recipient's degree course.

The Scholarship is awarded for the normal full-time duration of the recipient's degree course (including combined degrees) plus one additional honours year if an additional year is required for honours. Continuation of the Scholarship each year is dependent on the recipient maintaining an excellent academic record with an annual average mark (AAM) of at least 75, that is, at Distinction level.

This Scholarship cannot be deferred.

Scholarship recipients must enrol full-time in the agreed Faculty/degree program during the tenure of their scholarship. Students who transfer to another degree within the same faculty may also transfer their scholarship with the written approval of the Dean. Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student's capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Scholarships Officer in the Faculty.

The scholarship shall be terminated if the recipient: fails to achieve an average mark of 75 in the agreed degree program; or enrolls part-time without the prior approval from the University to hold the scholarship part-time; or withdraws from the agreed degree program.

Once terminated, the scholarship will not be reinstated.
