

Eric Campbell Scott Scholarship Business Scholarship

Established in 2000 by a donation from the USA Foundation, the scholarship is named after the eminent alumnus and prominent international businessman David W Johnson.

Scholarship value and duration

The scholarship is valued at $3000 per annum, tenable for 3 years or 4 years maximum for honours

Eligibility criteria

- The scholarship is open to citizens or permanent residents of Australia who qualify and apply, via the Universities Admissions Centre, for entry to a degree program in the University of Sydney Business School.
- Financial need, and information supplied by the applicant.
- Applicants are considered for the award when submitting an application via the Equity Scholarship application form through and making an application via Sydney Scholars 2017 Sydney Scholars Awards.
- Applicants submit an application form via the 2017 Sydney Scholars Awards and elect the Business School as the Faculty they applying for admission to in 2017.

For more information

Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarship.applications@sydney.edu.au

Background

Established in 2000 by a donation from the USA Foundation, the scholarship is named after the eminent alumnus and prominent international businessman David W Johnson.

Selection criteria

- The scholarship shall be awarded on the basis of academic merit, financial need, and information supplied by the applicant.
- The essential criterion for academic merit is a UAI of 96 or more in the NSW Higher School Certificate, or the equivalent, in the year of application for the scholarship.
- The essential criterion for financial need is receipt of means-tested Commonwealth allowance.

Ongoing eligibility

- The award is conditional on the scholar's meeting all the obligations of the program and maintaining a satisfactory level of progress (which shall normally be deemed to mean a credit average over all subjects attempted in any one year).

Payment schedule

- Paid in two equal instalments of $1,500 at the beginning of each semester, subject to the recipient remaining a fully enrolled student in the agreed degree program.

Eric Campbell Scott Scholarship Terms and Conditions

The scholarship is awarded under the following conditions:

1. The name of the scholarship shall be the Eric Campbell Scott Scholarship in Business.
2. The scholarship is open to citizens or permanent residents of Australia who qualify and apply, via the Universities Admissions Centre, for entry to a degree program in the University of Sydney Business School.
3. The scholarship shall be awarded on the basis of academic merit, financial need, and information supplied by the applicant. The essential criterion for academic merit is a UAI of 96 or more in the NSW Higher School Certificate, or the equivalent, in the year of application for the scholarship. The essential criterion for financial need is receipt of means-tested Commonwealth allowance.
4. The scholarship shall be awarded at the discretion of the Dean of the University of Sydney Business School or Deans Nominee.
5. All offers of award are conditional upon evidence that the applicant meets the essential criteria. If an offer is refused, or a student becomes ineligible, then an offer will be made to the next ranked applicant.
6. The scholarship may not be deferred.
7. The scholarship shall be tenable only at the Business School at the University of Sydney and for the duration of each recipient's single and first degree and an Honours Year if taken. The award is conditional on the scholar's meeting all the obligations of the program and maintaining a satisfactory level of progress (which shall normally be deemed to mean a credit average over all subjects attempted in any one year).
8. The scholarship is offered for, and is tenable in, a specific degree program and is not transferable to another degree program except with the permission of the Dean of the University of Sydney Business School.
9. For each year the scholarship is awarded, $3,000 shall be paid in two equal instalments of $1,500 at the beginning of each semester, subject to the recipient remaining a fully enrolled student in the agreed degree program. The scholarship is valued as a secondary value scholarship and may be held with primary value scholarship. The scholarship is guaranteed upon acceptance of enrolment but if the recipient discontinues the degree or leaves the University during the course of the year the Faculty may require repayment of that year's stipend.