Background
Established in 1997, an estimated $1.3 million was bequeathed to the University of Sydney from the Estate of the late Renee Fauvette Erdos for the purpose of establishing a travelling scholarship in art in memory of her mother, the eldest daughter of the artist Arthur Loureiro.

The objective of the scholarship is to provide financial assistance to a recent graduate of the Sydney College of the Arts to further enhance their knowledge and skills developed thus far.

Selection criteria
A panel of judges consisting of the current SCA Scholarships Committee, the SCA Dean or a member of staff nominated by the Dean, and an external member being a highly respected practising artist, art critic, gallery director or recognised member of an established art or cultural organisation, will shortlist applications.

Applications must include:
- a curriculum vitae (CV)
- a portfolio*
- an artist benefit statement

* Hard copies of the application and portfolio are not accepted.

Payment schedule
- Each year, two instalments of equal value shall be paid after the census dates in each semester.
