N.P.H. Graham Scholarship in Sheep Research

The scholarship was established in 1983 by donations from the family, friends and colleagues of Norman Piesse Hunter Graham to acknowledge his many contributions to the Australian sheep industry. Mr Graham graduated in 1929 in the University and devoted his professional life, mostly as an officer of the CSIRO, to the investigation of problems in the sheep industry. The object of the scholarship is to promote research in sheep.

Scholarship value and duration
grant-in-aid for the holder for expenses incurred in connection with postgraduate research. The value of the scholarship shall depend on the needs of the holder and shall be drawn from the income of the Fund. The value of other emoluments shall be taken into account when the award is being made.

Eligibility criteria
The scholarship may be awarded to full-time postgraduate students enrolled in the University of Sydney who are undertaking research in sheep.

For more information
Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarship.applications@sydney.edu.au

Selection criteria
The scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Board of Postgraduate Studies of the Faculty of Veterinary Science.

Payment schedule
Single payment

Conditions of award
Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
The scholarship was established in 1983 by donations from the family, friends and colleagues of Norman Piesse Hunter Graham to acknowledge his many contributions to the Australian sheep industry. Mr Graham graduated in 1929 in the University and devoted his professional life, mostly as an officer of the CSIRO, to the investigation of problems in the sheep industry.

The scholarship shall be awarded under the following conditions:

1. The name of the scholarship shall be the N.P.H. Graham Scholarship for Sheep Research.
2. The object of the scholarship is to promote research in sheep.
3. The scholarship may be awarded to full-time postgraduate students enrolled in the University of Sydney who are undertaking research in sheep.
4. The scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Board of Postgraduate Studies of the Faculty of Veterinary Science.
5. The scholarship may be held in conjunction with any other postgraduate award and shall be in the form of a grant-in-aid for the holder for expenses incurred in connection with postgraduate research.
6. The value of the scholarship shall depend on the needs of the holder and shall be drawn from the income of the Fund. The value of other emoluments shall be taken into account when the award is being made.