University of Sydney Honours Scholarship

Terms and Conditions

1. Background

The University of Sydney Honours Scholarships are available to both international and domestic students enrolling in an appended Honours Program. This is an additional year to a standard Bachelor degree.

2. Eligibility

To be considered eligible for this scholarship, applicants must:

a. Have applied for entry into an Honours Program at the University of Sydney commencing in 2018 in either semester 1 or semester 2, and

b. Have completed their undergraduate studies at the University of Sydney; if they are an international student, and

c. Have lodged an application for this scholarship in the year prior to enrolment.

d. Degrees that allow course completion in an Honours stream are not eligible for this scholarship.

3. Selection Criteria

a. The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic merit and personal attributes such as leadership and creativity.

b. The Scholarship will be awarded by a selection committee consisting of various Faculty Deans, or their nominated delegates.

4. Value

a. The Scholarship is valued at $6000 per annum and is tenable for one year only. This will be paid in two equal instalments after the census date of each semester.

b. Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will be approved under review of any extenuating circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student’s capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be approved by the Scholarships Office; if approved, payment will be 50% of the normal rate.

c. Deferral of the Scholarship is not permitted without the prior approval of the Scholarships office; it is also not transferable to another program, faculty or University.

d. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funds. No other amount is payable.

5. Termination

a. The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:

   I. withdraws from the agreed program or fails to enrol,
   II. commences part-time study without prior approval,
   III. is determined by the University to be guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information as part of their Scholarship application,
   IV. is awarded an alternative primary scholarship. In such circumstances this Scholarship will be terminated in favour of the alternative scholarship where it is of higher value,
