

Zoe Hall Memorial Scholarship

Terms and Conditions

July 2018

1. Background

- a. This Scholarship was instigated by two law firms: Minter Ellison and Middletons, Moore and Bevans in memory of Zoe Hall, a graduate of Sydney Law School who was tragically died with many others at Port Arthur, Tasmania on 28 April 1996. Support for the Scholarships is derived from the Hall family and friends, a broad cross-section of the legal profession and the wider community.

2. Eligibility

- a. Applicants must be an Australian citizen or an Australian permanent resident enrolled in their penultimate year or final year of either the Bachelor of Laws, or Juris Doctor Program at University of Sydney.
- b. Applicants must have at least one semester of enrolment remaining in their eligible program, at the time of application.

3. Selection Criteria

- a. The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic merit and a personal statement which outlines the applicant's contribution to the Sydney Law School, University and wider community.
- b. The Scholarship will be awarded on the nomination of a selection committee consisting of the Dean of the Sydney Law School or their nominee, one other academic member of staff from the School and may have a person nominated by the Trust in attendance. The final decision rests with the University of Sydney.

4. Value

- a. The Scholarship is valued at $5,000 and is paid as a one-off payment. The Scholarship value may be shared if more than once recipient is awarded the Scholarship in any given round.
- b. Deferral of the Scholarship is not permitted without the prior permission of the Associate Dean for Professional Law Programs, or their nominee and it is not transferable for another purpose.
- c. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funds.
- d. No other amount is payable.

5. Ongoing eligibility

- a. The student must remain enrolled in their eligible degree program.

6. Termination

- a. The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:

Zoe Hall Memorial Scholarship

- I. withdraws from an eligible course or fails to enrol,
 - II. is determined by the University to be guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information as part of their Scholarship application, or
 - III. any other provision as indicated in these terms that would lead to termination.
- b. Once the Scholarship has been terminated, it will not be reinstated unless due to University error.
 - c. Where a student is found guilty of serious misconduct or withdraws from the relevant course, the University reserves the right to request that any Scholarship funds paid to the Scholarship recipient be reimbursed.

7. Other

- a. Scholarship recipient may be invited to promote the University of Sydney Law School at University and corporate networking events.
