The Kathleen and Allison Short Scholarship
Support for any talented students at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music studying piano, violin, viola or cello who are deemed to be in financial need.

Scholarship value and duration
The Scholarship is awarded for the normal full-time duration of the recipient's degree course (including combined degrees) plus one additional honours year if an additional year is required for honours.

Eligibility criteria
- This scholarship is open to full-time undergraduate and postgraduate students (both local and international) enrolled at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.
- The recipient is to be a talented student of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music who is studying Piano, Violin, Viola or Cello.
- The recipient is to be deemed to be in financial need.

For more information
Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarship.applications@sydney.edu.au

Background
Bequeathed by The Estate of Allison Louise Larsen for the provision of a student scholarship in Piano, Violin, Viola or Cello.

Selection criteria
Awarded on academic merit as assessed by portfolio, performance or other entry criteria for the normal full-time duration of the recipient's degree course.

Ongoing eligibility
- Continuation of the Scholarship each year is dependent on the recipient maintaining an excellent academic record with an annual average mark (AAM) of at least 75, that is, at Distinction level.
- Scholarship recipients must enrol full-time in the agreed Faculty/degree program during the tenure of their scholarship.
- Students who transfer to another degree within the same faculty may also transfer their scholarship with the written approval of the Dean.
- Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student's capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Scholarships Officer in the Faculty.

Conditions of award
Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
TERMS & CONDITIONS
SC0752 - The Kathleen and Allison Short Scholarship

Bequeathed by The Estate of Allison Louise Larsen for the provision of a student scholarship in Piano, Violin, Viola or Cello.

Multiple scholarships may be available for award in any one year. The recipient is to be a talented student of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music who is studying Piano, Violin, Viola or Cello. The recipient is to be deemed to be in financial need.

This scholarship is open to full-time undergraduate and postgraduate students (both local and international) enrolled at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Awarded on academic merit as assessed by portfolio, performance or other entry criteria for the normal full-time duration of the recipient’s degree course.

The Scholarship is awarded for the normal full-time duration of the recipient's degree course (including combined degrees) plus one additional honours year if an additional year is required for honours. Continuation of the Scholarship each year is dependent on the recipient maintaining an excellent academic record with an annual average mark (AAM) of at least 75, that is, at Distinction level.

This Scholarship cannot be deferred.

Scholarship recipients must enrol full-time in the agreed Faculty/degree program during the tenure of their scholarship. Students who transfer to another degree within the same faculty may also transfer their scholarship with the written approval of the Dean. Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student’s capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Scholarships Officer in the Faculty.

The scholarship shall be terminated if the recipient: fails to achieve an average mark of 75 in the agreed degree program; enrols part-time without the prior approval from the University to hold the scholarship part-time; or withdraws from the agreed degree program.

Once terminated, the scholarship will not be reinstated.