Background

The scholarship was established in 2006 as a joint scholarship between the University of Sydney Business School and the residential colleges: the Women’s College, Wesley College Foundation, St Andrew’s College and Sancta Sophia College with the overall aim being to improve access to the University of Sydney Business School for Indigenous Australians.

Up to two scholarships will be awarded each year.

Selection criteria

- The necessity of accommodation on campus as a means to gaining access to education

- Financial disadvantage

- Potential to succeed in an area of study taught within the Business School, and Suitability for college life

Ongoing eligibility

- Recipients must be enrolled full time and maintain satisfactory performance (a pass grade of 50% or higher in all units of study undertaken). If the recipient is a resident of St. Andrew’s College a 60% average over each semester applies. If recipient withdraws or leaves the program during an academic semester, they may be required to repay that semester’s stipend.

- A confirmed offer of a scholarship must be taken up by enrolment in the nominated program in the semester for which the offer is made.

- The scholarship cannot be deferred.

- Scholarship recipients will be encouraged to join the Cadigal Program but this is not a compulsory requirement.

Payment schedule

- Payment will be made after the census date.
