Background

The Women's Plans Foundation Award is for students with a demonstrated interest in global health. Preference will be given to students of reproductive health who understand the role of family planning in women’s development in developing countries.

Selection criteria

- The successful applicant will be selected by the Sydney Nursing School, with the Dean Sydney Nursing School making a recommendation to the Women’s Plans Foundation.

- Assessment is based on a 100 to 200 word application, demonstrating your interest in reproductive health and family planning in women’s development in developing countries, together with your academic record.

Payment schedule

- A single payment will be made after the census date.

Termination

- The scholarship shall be terminated if the recipient fails to adhere to conditions of award and prize will not be awarded.

Conditions of award

- The successful applicant shall be available to receive the award at an Australia Day luncheon at Parliament House, to speak about the award at a Women’s Plans Foundation event and be featured on the Women’s Plans Foundation website.
