Background

The University of Sydney Business School is pleased to offer financial assistance to Master of Management (CEMS) students participating on exchange to a recognised CEMS Partner University.

Selection criteria

- The scholarships will be awarded automatically and ranked on the basis of academic merit (determined by Weighted Average Mark) for all University of Sydney units of study completed in the student’s first semester in the Master of Management (CEMS).

- No application is necessary.

Payment schedule

- The Business School will endeavour to make payments prior to Semester 2 group’s departure but it is envisioned that the selection process may be delayed until August due to the availability of student grades.

- Semester 1 departing students are expected to receive payment between February to March.

Termination

The scholarship shall be terminated if the recipient:

- Does not enrol full-time

- Meet the conditions of their degree program during the tenure of the scholarship

- Meet the conditions of exchange arrangements during the tenure of the scholarship

- Recipients are liable to repay the scholarship funding

Conditions of award

- The scholarship is offered for, and is tenable in the Master of Management CEMS degree and is not transferable to another degree program.

- Requests to suspend the scholarship after a confirmed offer will only be approved under exceptional circumstances such as a severe medical condition which limits the student’s capacity to undertake the exchange. Such requests must be supported by the Program Director, Master of Management (CEMS).

- Scholarship recipients must enrol full-time and meet the conditions of their degree program and exchange arrangements during the tenure of the scholarship.
