William George Murrell Supplementary Scholarship

Terms and Conditions

April 2019

1. Background
   a. Established in 2010 from a bequest from Mr William George Murrell, this Scholarship promotes postgraduate research in microbiology.

2. Eligibility
   a. Applicants must be enrolled or have an unconditional offer of admission for full-time studies in a PhD within the School of Life and Environmental Sciences in the Faculty of Science at the University of Sydney, and be willing to/or are undertaking research in the field of microbiology.
   b. Applicants must also apply and be awarded a RTP Scholarship. Current research students within the School may also apply, but must already hold an RTP Scholarship, or equivalent.

3. Selection Criteria
   a. The successful applicant will be awarded the Scholarship on the basis of:
      I. their RTP application,
      II. curriculum vitae,
      III. area of study and research proposal, and
      IV. a personal statement which demonstrates interest and any experience in research in microbiology and the importance of the funding for the proposed research.
   b. The successful applicant will be awarded the Scholarship on the nomination of a selection committee consisting of the Dean of the Faculty of Science and Head of School – SOLES, or their nominee(s).

4. Value
   a. The Scholarship will provide an annual supplementary stipend allowance of $10,000 per annum (fixed rate) for up to three years, subject to satisfactory academic performance. Recipients may apply for up to a six month extension.
   b. Periods of study already undertaken towards the degree prior to the commencement of the Scholarship, will be deducted from the maximum duration of the Scholarship excluding the potential extension period.
   c. The Scholarship is not deferrable or transferable to another area of research.
   d. No other amount is payable.
   e. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funding.
5. Eligibility for Progression
   a. Progression is subject to passing the annual progress review.

6. Leave Arrangements
   a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary scholarship.

7. Research Overseas
   a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary scholarship.

8. Suspension
   a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary scholarship.

9. Changes in Enrolment
   a. The Scholarship recipient must notify HDRAC and their supervisor promptly of any planned changes to their enrolment including but not limited to: attendance pattern, suspension, leave of absence, withdrawal, course transfer, and candidature upgrade or downgrade. If the award holder does not provide notice of the changes identified above, the University may require repayment of any overpaid stipend.

10. Termination
    a. Unless terminated earlier under this paragraph, the Scholarship will terminate:

       I. on resignation or withdrawal of the student from their PhD,
       II. upon submission of the thesis or at the end of the award,
       III. if the student ceases to be a full-time student and prior approval has not been obtained to hold the Scholarship on a part-time basis,
       IV. upon the student having completed the maximum candidature for their degree as per the University of Sydney (Higher Degree by Research) Rule 2011 Policy,
       V. on receipt of another supplementary scholarship that increases the overall supplementary rate paid to a student to more than 75% of the primary amount. In such circumstances, the supplementary scholarship of the higher value prevails,
       VI. if the recipient does not resume study at the end of a period of approved leave, or
       VII. if the student ceases to meet the eligibility requirements specified for this Scholarship, (other than during a period in which the Scholarship has been suspended or during a period of approved leave).

    b. The Scholarship may also be terminated by the University before this time if, in the opinion of the University:

       I. the course of study is not being carried out with competence and diligence or in accordance with the terms of this offer,
William George Murrell Supplementary Scholarship

II. the student fails to maintain satisfactory progress, or
III. the student has committed misconduct or other inappropriate conduct.

c. Stipend payments will be suspended throughout the duration of any enquiry/appeal process.

d. Once the Scholarship has been terminated, it will not be reinstated unless due to University error.

11. Misconduct

a. Where during the Scholarship a student engages in misconduct, or other inappropriate conduct (either during the Scholarship or in connection with the student’s application and eligibility for the Scholarship), which in the opinion of the University warrants recovery of funds paid to the student, the University may require the student to repay stipend amounts and any other payments made to the student in connection with the Scholarship. Examples of such conduct include and without limitation; academic dishonesty, research misconduct within the meaning of the Research Code of Conduct (for example, plagiarism in proposing, carrying out or reporting the results of research, or failure to declare or manage a serious conflict of interests), breach of the Code of Conduct for Students and misrepresentation in the application materials or other documentation associated with the Scholarship.

b. The University may require such repayment at any time during or after the Scholarship period. In addition, by accepting this Scholarship, the student consents to all aspects of any investigation into misconduct in connection with this Scholarship being disclosed by the University to the funding body and/or any relevant professional body.
