Canon Honours Scholarship

Awarded annually to a student enrolled in the Business School Honours Program with a Marketing specialisation, the recipient demonstrates the greatest proficiency in their units of study for their Marketing major in their undergraduate Pass coursework degree. The name of each scholarship shall be the Canon Honours Scholarship.

Scholarship value and duration

In the year that the scholarship is awarded, a total of $6000 shall be paid in two equal instalments at the beginning of each semester, subject to the recipient remaining a fully enrolled student in the agreed Honours Program. The scholarship may be awarded as a $5000 secondary scholarship, if the recipient is already in receipt of a primary value scholarship.

Eligibility criteria

− Each scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic merit, and where applicable supporting documentation. The essential criterion for academic merit is completion of a Marketing major in their undergraduate pass degree with a distinction minimum weighted average mark in the units completed in the Marketing major.

Background

Established in 2002 from Canon Australia. Canon Australia have a strong commitment to the academic development of Australia’s youth and as one of the world’s most recognised brands, are particularly interested in encouraging outstanding academic endeavour in Marketing.

Selection criteria

Each scholarship is open to students who completed their Bachelor coursework degree in the University of Sydney Business School and have been accepted into the Business School Honours Program with a Marketing specialisation.

The applicant must have obtained a minimum distinction average (75 and above) in their undergraduate Marketing major units of study.

To continue receipt of the Scholarship, the recipient must maintain satisfactory academic progress to ensure successful on-time completion of their honours program.
