Dean's Entry Scholarship in Engineering & Information Technologies

The Dean’s Entry Scholarship in Engineering and Information Technologies was established to encourage and support students who are embarking on future undergraduate studies in the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies.

Scholarship value and duration

$6,000 tenable for 1 year only

Eligibility criteria

– The scholarship shall be open to all Australian citizens or Australian permanent residents who are in their final year of schooling and qualify and subsequently enrol into a bachelor degree program in the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies at the University of Sydney having achieved an ATAR of 98 or above

– Combined degrees are also eligible.

For more information

Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarships.officer@sydney.edu.au

Background

At the request of the Dean, the Dean’s Entry Scholarship in Engineering and Information Technologies was established in 2012 to encourage and support students who are embarking on future undergraduate studies in the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies.

Selection criteria

– The scholarship shall be awarded on the basis of academic merit (as indicated by the applicant’s performance at the N.S.W HSC examination or equivalent)

– One scholarship will be offered to a candidate on the basis of academic merit in each of the five schools across the Faculty

– Two remaining scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic merit to students entering selected undergraduate courses/streams within the faculty. The courses/streams chosen will be at the discretion of the Associate Dean (Education) or their nominee, but will be selected to promote diversity in the allocation of the Scholarship

– A personal statement is supplied indicating an applicant’s preferred stream of engineering and/or course within the faculty by the scholarship application deadline.

Ongoing eligibility

– Subject to satisfactory academic progress deemed to be a credit average (65%) or above.

– Deferment of the scholarship is not permitted

– The scholarship shall be tenable in the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies at the University of Sydney and shall not be transferable to another faculty or university program.

Payment schedule

– Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester.
Termination

The scholarship will be terminated on the following grounds:

– The recipient withdraws from their degree program

– If the recipient changes their program (i.e. course or stream) in their first year of study without the prior approval of the Associate Dean (Education)

– The recipient commences part-time study without the prior consent of the Associate Dean (Education)

– The recipient does not maintain satisfactory academic performance as defined in ongoing eligibility

– The recipient receives and accepts another primary University of Sydney scholarship or faculty scholarship during the duration of this scholarship.

– In the event that the recipient discontinues their course any money paid to the student during that academic year may be requested to be repaid to the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies. This is subject to the Associate Dean (Education)'s discretion.

– The recipient will not pursue a course of studies at any institution other than the University of Sydney during the course of the scholarship.