Background
Established in 2012 the scholarship is open to candidates who apply for admission to commence in a Business School degree or who are currently enrolled in a Business School degree.

Awarded annually for one year to talented athletes who are competing at state and/or national levels and is based on academic merit in their Higher School Certificate or academic performance in their Business School degree.

Successful candidates receiving this award are considered for award again in the following year.

Selection criteria
- Academic merit and sporting achievements at state and national level

Ongoing eligibility
- Maintains an average mark of at least 65, and a minimum of two units with the Business School each semester.
- Not permitted to enrol in less than the part-time loading of two units of study per semester except under exceptional circumstances and with the permission of the Business School, or the scholarship will lapse.
- Recipients must maintain continuous enrolment, no leave of absence is allowed, except under exceptional circumstances supported by the Dean.

Payment schedule
- All University of Sydney Business School and Sydney University Sport & Fitness Joint Scholarships will be paid in two instalments at census dates each year (March 31 and August 31)
- Withdraws from the agreed degree program. Once terminated, a scholarship cannot be reinstated.
Conditions of award

1. Continuation of the Scholarship through the year is dependent on the recipient maintaining a sound academic record, with an average mark of at least 65, that is, at credit level and enrolling in a minimum two units of study with the University of Sydney Business School each semester.

2. Recipients are not permitted to enrol in less than the part-time loading of two units of study per semester except under exceptional circumstances and with the permission of the Business School or the scholarship will lapse.

3. Each scholarship is offered for, and is tenable in a specific degree program and is not transferable to another degree program, except with the permission of the Business School.

4. A confirmed offer of a scholarship must be taken up by enrolment in the nominated degree or combined degree program in the year for which the offer is made. No deferment of enrolment or scholarship is allowed.

5. Recipients must maintain a continuous enrolment, no ‘Leave of Absence’ is allowed, except under exceptional circumstances such as a medical condition which limits the student’s capacity to undertake part-time study. Such requests must be supported by the Dean.

6. All University of Sydney Business School and Sydney Uni Sport & Fitness Joint Scholarships may be paid in four instalments - partial payment can be made at census dates each year (March 31 and August 31) and/or then at the end of each semester.

Termination
