Background

The scholarship, established in 2012 by the University of Sydney Business School, is offered in conjunction with The Remote and Rural Enterprise (RARE) Program. The RARE Program aims to raise the impact of entrepreneurial teaching on students in a way that benefits remote and rural enterprises and their communities. It is a two-way learning exchange whereby postgraduate business students engage with real enterprises, applying their skills and expertise to the challenges and opportunities in remote and rural Australia. This includes action-research projects and a community placement.

Selection criteria

- Students are considered for a scholarship when making an application for The RARE Program.
- There is no separate application process for the scholarship.
- The Dean’s Scholarship for the Remote and Rural Enterprise Program are awarded to the most outstanding applicants against the RARE Program selection criteria. The criteria are academic merit, relevant work and volunteer experience, extracurricular activities, interest in community development, motivation for participation in RARE and entrepreneurial spirit and enthusiasm.
- Applicant performance against the criteria is assessed by the RARE Coordinator in consultation with the Program Director of the Innovation and Enterprise Program. Short-listed applicants are interviewed as part of the placement process.

Payment schedule

- Payable after the census date
Conditions of award

- The scholarship is only offered to students who have been selected for a place in The RARE Program.

- The scholarship must be taken up at the time the scholarship is offered for the RARE placement, the scholarship cannot be deferred to a later round of The RARE Program.

- To receive the award the recipient must fulfil their place in one of the RARE projects. Recipients who do not fulfil placement arrangements will be required to return the funding in full.

- Scholarship recipients have an opportunity to promote The RARE Program for publicity purposes.
