The Anstice MBA Scholarship for Community Leadership

Established from a generous donation from prominent alumnus David Anstice, the Scholarship offers support to emerging business leaders from the not-for-profit sector, including charities and NGOs operating in Australia, or internationally.

Scholarship Value and Duration
The Scholarship is valued at $10,000 per semester and is tenable for up to three years.

Eligibility criteria
To be eligible for the Scholarship, applicants must be an Australian Citizen, New Zealand Citizen, or Australian Permanent Resident who are eligible to receive an unconditional offer of admission into the MBA Program offered by the University of Sydney Business School.

Background
The Scholarship is dedicated to the MBA program. The intention of this Scholarship is to assist emerging leaders in community organisations acquire world class business and management skills.

Selection criteria
The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the applicant's application for admission into the MBA and a personal statement which should be submitted with the application of admission which demonstrates:

- experience working in a multi-disciplinary team,
- collaboration with for-profit and/or government organisations and an ability to network,
- their development of an initiative which has been adopted by their organisation and has proven sustainable,
- leadership, having coordinated a team in a project or business strategy to a successful outcome, and
- personal achievements which have been recognised in the community.

Preference will be given to those who currently are employed within the not-for-profit sector.

For more information
- Student Administration Services
- T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
- T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
- E scholarships.officer@sydney.edu.au
The Anstice MBA Scholarship for Community Leadership

Terms and Conditions
November 2017

1. Background

a. Established from a generous donation from prominent alumnus David Anstice, the Scholarship offers support to emerging business leaders from the not-for-profit sector, including charities and NGOs operating in Australia, or internationally.

b. The Scholarship is dedicated to the MBA program. The intention of this Scholarship is to assist emerging leaders in community organisations acquire world class business and management skills.

2. Eligibility

a. To be eligible for the Scholarship, applicants must be an Australian Citizen, New Zealand Citizen, or Australian Permanent Resident who are eligible to receive an unconditional offer of admission into the MBA Program offered by the University of Sydney Business School.

3. Selection Criteria

a. The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the applicant’s application for admission into the MBA and a personal statement which should be submitted with the application of admission which demonstrates:

   I. experience working in a multi-disciplinary team,
   II. collaboration with for-profit and/or government organisations and an ability to network,
   III. their development of an initiative which has been adopted by their organisation and has proven sustainable,
   IV. leadership, having coordinated a team in a project or business strategy to a successful outcome, and
   V. personal achievements which have been recognised in the community.

b. Preference will be given to those who currently are employed within the not-for-profit sector.

c. The Scholarship will be awarded on the recommendation of a Selection Committee consisting of the Dean of the University of Sydney Business School, or their nominee and academic staff forming the MBA Admission Selection Committee, or their nominated delegates.

4. Value

a. The Scholarship is valued at $10,000 per semester and is tenable for up to three years.

b. The Scholarship value will be paid after the census date of each applicable semester.

c. In addition to the above payment, successful recipients will also receive an additional $10,000 payment to assist with travel costs associated with the International Business Project (IBP) unit of study. This payment will be made after the census date of the semester in which the recipient is enrolled in the IPB unit of study.

d. Deferral of the Scholarship is not permitted and it is not transferable to another degree or university.

e. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funds.

f. No other amount is payable.
The Anstice MBA Scholarship for Community Leadership

5. Ongoing eligibility

a. To continue receipt of the Scholarship, the recipient must maintain a minimum WAM of 75 and maintain enrolment in a minimum of two units of study each semester.

6. Termination

a. The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:

   I. withdraws from an eligible course or fails to enrol,
   II. does not maintain satisfactory academic performance,
   III. failure to successfully complete the IBP unit of study,
   IV. is determined by the University to be guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information as part of their Scholarship application,
   V. is awarded an alternative primary scholarship. In such circumstances this scholarship will be terminated in favour of the alternative scholarship where the alternative scholarship is of higher value,
   VI. does not resume study at the end of a period of approved leave, or
   VII. any other provision as indicated in these terms that would lead to termination.

b. Once terminated, the Scholarship will not be reinstated.

c. Where a student is found guilty of serious misconduct or withdraws from the relevant course, the University reserves the right to request that any Scholarship funds paid to the Scholarship recipient be reimbursed.