Finance Honours Scholarship

The Finance Honours Scholarship is intended to promote excellence in research study in the discipline of Finance and is awarded to successful Honours candidates in the Discipline of Finance.

Scholarship value and duration
The scholarship value is $5,000 tenable during the recipient’s undergraduate honours year.
Up to five full scholarships may be allocated each year and at the Academic Honours Coordinator’s discretion and these may be awarded as full or half value scholarships.

Eligibility criteria
- The scholarship is open to local and international students and is awarded annually to candidates commencing undergraduate honours in Finance.
- The recipient must be completing their honours year in one year full-time study.
- Full scholarships may not be awarded to students in receipt of other scholarship funding specifically awarded for the student’s honours year or scholarship funding of primary, equal or higher value, without renouncing that award.

Background
Funded by the Discipline of Finance at The University of Sydney Business School.

Selection criteria
- Selection is based on proficient performance in coursework study, examination results and each candidate’s honours application.
- Candidates are considered when applying to the honours program with a completed bachelor degree from either the University of Sydney or another tertiary institution.

Payment schedule
- Payment will be made in one instalment after the census date.

Termination
- The scholarship holder is liable to return the funding in full if they withdraw from their honours year.
