

James Strong - Nomura Scholarship for Business

This scholarship was established to offer support to talented students studying an undergraduate degree on a full time basis at the University of Sydney Business School.

Scholarship value and duration

The scholarship is tenable for three years and will be paid annually at the rate of $7,500.

Eligibility criteria

- The scholarship is available for permanent residents and citizens of Australia who:
- Will enrol full time in a University of Sydney Business School undergraduate degree;
- Intend to commence their studies in the year of award;
- Have completed the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC) or an approved equivalent secondary school examination in the year prior to commencing an undergraduate coursework degree with the University of Sydney Business School.

For more information

Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarship.applications@sydney.edu.au

Faculty: Business School
Scholarship name: James Strong - Nomura Scholarship for Business
Scholarship number: SC1614
CRICOS 00026A

Background

Established from a generous donation from Nomura Australia Limited in honour of the respected business leader and philanthropist, James Strong. This scholarship offers support to talented students studying an undergraduate degree on a full time basis, at the University of Sydney Business School.

Selection criteria

- To be eligible for the award you must have applied for and been accepted into an undergraduate degree at the University of Sydney Business School.
- Shortlisted applicants may be invited to attend an interview with the selection committee.

Ongoing eligibility

- The scholarship must be taken up in the semester in which it is offered.
- The scholarship recipient must be enrolled in the agreed degree program and must undertake a full time study load of 24 credit points each semester. If extenuating circumstances arise, the scholarship recipient may submit a request to decrease their study load to 18 credit points per semester but only with the permission of the Business School.
- The duration of the scholarship will not be extended.
- The scholarship recipient must maintain a continuous enrolment and may not defer or suspend their enrolment in the degree.
- No leave of absence is allowed, except under exceptional circumstances such as a medical condition

Payment schedule

- Payment will be made in equal instalments after the census dates in each semester.

James Strong - Nomura Scholarship for Business Terms and Conditions

Purpose

- a. The intention of this scholarship is to assist highly qualified, new commencing students from around Australia, to pursue an undergraduate Business degree offered by the Business School in honour of James Strong Will enrol full time in a University of Sydney Business School undergraduate degree;
- b. Have completed the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC) or an approved equivalent secondary school examination in the year prior to commencing an undergraduate coursework degree with the University of Sydney Business School.

Value and Tenure

- a. The scholarship is tenable for three years and will be paid annually at the rate of $7,500.

Selection

- a. To be eligible for the award you must have applied for and been accepted into an undergraduate degree at the University of Sydney Business School.
- b. Applicants are required to complete and submit the University Merit Scholarship application form, which closes in late September at the Central Scholarships Office.
- c. Shortlisted applicants may be invited to attend an interview with the selection committee.

Awarding of the Scholarship

- a. The scholarship will be awarded following recommendations of the selection committee, consisting of the Deputy Dean of the Business School and two academic members of the Business School.
- b. The scholarship will be awarded on academic merit, personal qualities, leadership potential, and community involvement.

Acceptance and progression

- a. The scholarship must be taken up in the semester in which it is offered.
- b. The scholarship recipient must be enrolled in the agreed degree program and must undertake a full time study load of 24 credit points each semester. If extenuating circumstances arise, the scholarship recipient may submit a request to decrease their study load to 18 credit points per semester but only with the permission of the Business School. The duration of the scholarship will not be extended.
- c. The scholarship recipient must maintain a continuous enrolment and may not defer or suspend their enrolment in the degree. No leave of absence is allowed, except under exceptional circumstances such as a medical condition which limits the students capacity to undertake study.
- d. In the event that the scholarship recipient discontinues study, or transfers to another program, the scholarship is no longer tenable.
- e. The scholarship recipient must maintain a minimum distinction average of 75% each semester. The award is conditional on the scholarship recipient meeting all regulations of the coursework program.