Professional Leadership Development Scholarship
(Master of Management)

The Professional Leadership Development Scholarship supports professional staff who positively and demonstrably contribute to achieving strategic objectives in their work unit or across the University.

Scholarship value and duration

Up to two scholarships are available for award each year.

The scholarship covers full tuition fees for the standard duration of the Master of Management program and is tenable for up to two years of part-time study.

Students receiving this scholarship and enrolled in part-time study may be subject to income tax and they need to check with Australian Taxation Office for details.

Eligibility criteria

- Applicants are required to submit their curriculum vitae, a copy of their academic transcript and a one-page statement of motivation that addresses what the applicant hopes to achieve professionally and personally by completing the Master of Management.

- An applicant for admission to candidature for the degree must: Have a completed bachelor's degree from a recognised tertiary institution with a minimum credit average (65%); and

- Submit a statement of motivation; a one page statement outlining what the applicant hopes to achieve professionally and personally by completing The University of Sydney Business School’s Master of Management; and

Background

Established and funded by the Business School to provide a professional development opportunity to administrative staff and to enhance the capability of the University to achieve its strategic purpose.

Selection criteria

- Have met the following selection criteria:
  a) Leadership potential
  b) Problem-solving acuity
  c) Ability to work in a diverse group; and
  d) International orientation

- Attend a selection interview with the Master of Management selection committee to establish the candidate’s suitability for the degree; and

- Attend an interview with the scholarship assessment committee to assist the committee to determine their nominee for the scholarship award

Ongoing eligibility

- The scholarship must be taken up in the semester in which it is offered.

- The recipient must maintain a minimum enrolment load of 12 credit points per semester.

- The scholarship holder is not permitted to defer or suspend their enrolment in the degree to receive the scholarship.

- The scholarship holder must maintain a continuous enrolment, no leave of absence is allowed, except under exceptional circumstances such as a medical condition which limits the student’s capacity to undertake study. Such requests must be supported by the Director, Master of Management.

- In the event that the scholarship holder changes degree or discontinues study, the scholarship is no longer tenable.

For more information

Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarship.applications@sydney.edu.au
Ongoing eligibility cont.

- The award is conditional on the scholar meeting all requirements of the coursework program.

- To retain the scholarship, the recipient must achieve an average mark of 70% each semester.

- The scholarship may not be held concurrently with other University scholarship funds awarded to assist with the student’s tuition fees.

- The scholarship holder will have an opportunity to promote the Master of Management program and represent the Business School at student orientation, marketing events and corporate networking events.

Payment schedule

- The tuition fee will be cleared after each census date.

Termination

- If the scholarship holder leaves the employment of the University of Sydney they will no longer be entitled to scholarship support.

- The scholarship holder can continue with the Master of Management after leaving the University’s employment however they will need to make alternative payment arrangements directly with the University to cover the tuition fees for the unfinished units of study in the program.