Background
The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences International Exchange Scholarships scheme assists students enrolled in undergraduate degree programs with travel, insurance, living and other costs associated with studying overseas for one semester, on an approved program.

Up to 12 scholarships are awarded.

Selection criteria
- Scholarships will be awarded at the discretion of the selection committee on the basis of academic merit (by calculating your average mark), the strength and relevance of the accompanying personal statement and:
  i. the choice of host university in relation to your current studies;
  ii. the relationship of the intended exchange to your current studies;
  iii. the expected benefits of the exchange, both as a student and more generally; and
  iv. any intentions you may have to undertake further study, such as honours and/or subsequent postgraduate coursework or research)
  v. Proof of enrolment at an overseas institution
- The Scholarship is intended, in the first instance, for students not currently in receipt of any other Faculty exchange scholarship.

Payment schedule
- Payment will be made after the census date.

Conditions of award
- The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences reserves the right to specify destination regions or countries for which applications will be prioritised, based upon either
  i. Faculty strategic priorities, or
  ii. donor preferences.
