Ross Langdon Design for Sustainment Scholarship

The objective of the scholarship is to facilitate structured learning to advance the scholarship recipient’s growth as an architecture practitioner and leader in the area of sustainability and community engagement. Mr Langdon’s family contacted the Faculty in 2015 requesting a scholarship in honour of Ross’ legacy and his contribution to sustainable place making and community engaged practices.

Selection criteria

- To be eligible for the Ross Langdon Design for Sustainment Scholarship applicants must submit a portfolio demonstrating achievement in community engagement and sustainable place making and undertake an interview with a jury made up of representatives from the Faculty.

Payment schedule

- Payment will be made after the census date.

Conditions of award

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
TERMS & CONDITIONS
SC1946 - Ross Langdon Design for Sustainment Scholarship

Background
The objective of the scholarship is to facilitate structured learning to advance the scholarship recipient’s growth as an architecture practitioner and leader in the area of sustainability and community engagement. Mr Langdon's family contacted the Faculty in 2015 requesting a scholarship in honour of Ross' legacy and his contribution to sustainable place making and community engaged practices.

Eligibility
Students must have completed 48 credit points in the Master of Architecture Postgraduate studies to be eligible.

Selection Criteria
To be eligible for the Ross Langdon Design for Sustainment Scholarship applicants must submit a portfolio demonstrating achievement in community engagement and sustainable placemaking and undertake an interview with a jury made up of representatives from the Faculty.

Conditions of award
An one off payment for $2000.