Scholarship value and duration

$6,000 tenable for 1 year only.

Eligibility criteria

- Open to applicants who have a full/unconditional offer of study at the University of Sydney in the Masters of Health Technology Innovation at the time of the scholarship application closing date for the relevant semester it is being offered.
- Applicants must have achieved a distinction average or above in their undergraduate studies to apply.
- Students who have already commenced their studies in the above named program in the Faculty, or that transfer into the MHTI program from another postgraduate program are not eligible.

Selection criteria

- The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic merit. Where students of equal merit apply and are equally ranked, preference will be given to those applicants from a medical or health background.
- The scholarship will be awarded on the recommendation of the Associate Dean, (Education) or nominee and a nominated academic from the School of Information Technologies. The Associate Dean (Education) shall be the Committee Chair.

Ongoing eligibility

- The scholarship is tenable for one year only for full-time students.
- Deferral of the scholarship is not permitted.
- Ongoing payments are subject to satisfactory academic progress deemed to be a high credit average (70%) or above each semester.

Payment schedule

- Payment will be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester for full-time students.
- Part-time students will receive payments on a pro-rata basis each semester until the $6,000 scholarship amount is exhausted.
- Pro-rate payments will be calculated on the number of credit points taken each semester, with 24 credit points being considered a full-time semester load for the purposes of this scholarship.
