Walter Reid Scholarship

This scholarship was established to award a research scholarship to provide "a brilliant student in the Sydney Law School ... an opportunity to do original work abroad" in one or more of the following subjects: Constitutional Law, Legal History or Law of Property or such other professional subjects as the School may determine.

Scholarship value and duration
Up to $7,000

Eligibility criteria
- The scholarship will be awarded to postgraduate students enrolled in a research degree in the University of Sydney Law School.
- Includes, but is not exclusive to, students who are accepted into the Sydney Law School's Harvard Exchange Program.
- The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships or awards.

For more information
Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarship.applications@sydney.edu.au

Background
In 1948 Kathleen Mary Evangeline Maxwell made a donation to the University to establish a scholarship or prize in memory of her late brother, Mr Walter Edward Reid.

The donation may be used in one or more of the following subjects: Constitutional Law, Legal History or Law of Property or such other professional subjects as the School may determine.

Selection criteria
- Applicant performance against these criteria is assessed by a scholarship committee chaired by the Associate Dean (Research Education).

Payment schedule
- A single payment of up to $7,000 will be made.

Termination
Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
BACKGROUND

In 1948 Kathleen Mary Evangeline Maxwell made a donation to the University to establish a scholarship or prize in memory of her late brother, Mr Walter Edward Reid. The donation may be used to award a research scholarship to provide "a brilliant student in Sydney Law School ... an opportunity to do original work abroad" in one or more of the following subjects: Constitutional Law, Legal History or Law of Property or such other professional subjects as the School may determine.

ELIGIBILITY

The scholarship will be awarded to postgraduate students enrolled in a research degree in the University of Sydney Law School.

The purpose of the scholarship is to assist an exemplary postgraduate research student undertake original work abroad.

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships or awards.

AWARD CRITERIA

The scholarship is competitive and awarded on merit to the most outstanding applicants assessed against the following criteria:

a. academic merit
b. Quality of proposed program of research which must involve work overseas. This includes, but is not exclusive to, students who are accepted into the Sydney Law School's Harvard Exchange Program.

Applicants are required to submit an online application addressing each of the above criteria.

Applicant performance against these criteria is assessed by a scholarship committee chaired by the Associate Dean (Postgraduate Research).

One or more scholarships may be awarded.