Postgraduate Research Scholarship in Bio-hydrometallurgical Metal Recovery from E-waste

Terms and Conditions
June 2017

1. Background
   a. This project seeks to develop a novel bio-hydrometallurgical process for recovering metal values from e-waste and thus reduce the amount of e-waste that is landfilled or exported and associated harmful environmental impacts.

2. Eligibility
   a. The Scholarship is open to domestic applicants (Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents and New Zealand citizens) with an unconditional offer to study for a PhD in Chemical and Biomolecular engineering at the University of Sydney.

   b. Applicants must have an honours degree in science or engineering and demonstrate a strong interest in granular material and bio-hydrometallurgical metal recovery from e-waste.

   c. Applicants must also be in receipt of a primary scholarship from the University of Sydney that will provide a stipend allowance.

3. Selection Criteria
   a. The successful applicant will be awarded the Scholarship on the basis of:

      I. academic merit,
      II. curriculum vitae,
      III. area of study and research proposal,
      IV. a cover letter which demonstrates interest in granular material and bio-hydrometallurgical metal recovery from e-waste, and
      V. feedback from two academic referees.

   b. The successful applicant will be awarded the Scholarship by the nomination of the relevant research supervisor.

4. Value
   a. The Scholarship will provide an annual stipend top-up allowance of $7,000 per annum (fixed rate) for up to three years, subject to satisfactory academic performance. No extension is possible.

   b. Periods of study already undertaken towards the degree prior to the commencement of the Scholarship, will be deducted from the maximum duration of the Scholarship excluding the potential extension period.

   c. The Scholarship is intended to commence on 8 January 2018 and cannot be deferred or transferred to another area of research.
d. No other amount is payable.

5. Eligibility for Progression

a. Progression is subject to passing the annual progress review.

6. Leave Arrangements

a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary scholarship.

7. Research Overseas

b. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary scholarship.

8. Suspension

a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary scholarship.

9. Changes in Enrolment

a. The Scholarship recipient must notify HDRAC and their supervisor promptly of any planned changes to their enrolment including but not limited to: attendance pattern, suspension, leave of absence, withdrawal, course transfer, and candidature upgrade or downgrade. If the award holder does not provide notice of the changes identified above, the University may require repayment of any overpaid stipend.

10. Termination

a. Unless terminated earlier under this paragraph, the Scholarship will terminate:

   I. on resignation or withdrawal of the student from their PhD,
   II. upon submission of the thesis or at the end of the award,
   III. if the student ceases to be a full-time student and prior approval has not been obtained to hold the Scholarship on a part-time basis, or
   IV. If the student ceases to meet the eligibility requirements specified for this Scholarship, (other than during a period in which the Scholarship has been suspended or during a period of approved leave).

b. The Scholarship may also be terminated by the University before this time if, in the opinion of the University:

   I. the course of study is not being carried out with competence and diligence or in accordance with the terms of this offer,
   II. the student fails to maintain satisfactory progress, or
   III. the student has committed misconduct or other inappropriate conduct.

c. Stipend payments will be suspended throughout the duration of any enquiry/appeal process.

d. Once the Scholarship has been terminated, it will not be reinstated.
11. Misconduct

a. Where during the Scholarship a student engages in misconduct, or other inappropriate conduct (either during the Scholarship or in connection with the student’s application and eligibility for the Scholarship), which in the opinion of the University warrants recovery of funds paid to the student, the University may require the student to repay stipend amounts and any other payments made to the student in connection with the Scholarship. Examples of such conduct include and without limitation; academic dishonesty, research misconduct within the meaning of the Research Code of Conduct (for example, plagiarism in proposing, carrying out or reporting the results of research, or failure to declare or manage a serious conflict of interests), breach of the Code of Conduct for Students and misrepresentation in the application materials or other documentation associated with the Scholarship.

b. The University may require such repayment at any time during or after the Scholarship period. In addition, by accepting this Scholarship, the student consents to all aspects of any investigation into misconduct in connection with this Scholarship being disclosed by the University to the funding body and/or any relevant professional body.
