1. Background

   a. This Scholarship was established by the John Grill Centre for Project Leadership to assist female leaders of major projects to further develop their leadership capabilities and to support better project and organisation outcomes.

2. Eligibility

   a. This Scholarship is open to female applicants that have completed an undergraduate degree, graduate certificate or graduate diploma (or equivalent) at a comparable awarding institution with a minimum Weighted Average Mark of 65.

   b. The successful applicant will also have a minimum of 10 years relevant professional project experience and are currently employed working on a major project, or on project related issues.

   c. Applicants must receive an unconditional offer for the Executive Leadership in Major Projects (ELMP) Non-award Program, delivered by the John Grill Centre for Project Leadership at The University of Sydney, to be eligible for the Scholarship.

   d. Applicants must have the support of their current employer to participate in the Program.

3. Selection Criteria

   a. The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of:

      i. academic merit,
      ii. work experience, specifically an applicant’s experience leading major projects which is supported by a portfolio and curriculum vitae, and
      iii. a personal statement which demonstrates the applicant’s motivation and aspirations for undertaking the Program.

   b. Shortlisted applicants will be required to attend a formal interview.

   c. The Scholarship will be awarded on the recommendation of a selection committee consisting of the Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the John Grill Centre and the ELMP Program Director, or their nominee.

4. Value

   a. The Scholarship will cover the academic course fees for the four ELMP modules providing they are completed in the one calendar year.

   b. The recipient will be liable for their residential and travel costs associated with attending three blocks of study.
c. Deferral of the Scholarship is not permitted without the prior permission of the John Grill Centre for Project Leadership and it is not transferable to another Program, University school, faculty, or university.

d. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funds.

e. No other amount is payable

5. Ongoing eligibility

a. To continue receipt of the Scholarship, the recipient must successfully complete each of the four modules and associated milestones as part of the ELMP.

6. Termination

a. The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:
   i. withdraws from an eligible module, or fails to attend residential,
   ii. withdraws from the ELMP,
   iii. does not maintain satisfactory academic performance,
   iv. is determined by the University to be guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information as part of their Scholarship application,
   v. is awarded an alternative scholarship which also covers academic course fees, or
   vi. any other provision as indicated in these terms that would lead to termination.

b. Once the Scholarship has been terminated, it will not be reinstated.

c. Where a student is found guilty of serious misconduct or withdraws from the relevant course, the University reserves the right to request that any Scholarship funds paid to the Scholarship recipient be reimbursed.