Business School International Scholarships

Terms and Conditions
March 2019

1. Background

a. The Business School International Scholarships are awarded to exceptional international students from diversity priority markets. The Scholarship is open to commencing undergraduate and postgraduate international students who have been offered unconditional admission for a coursework full degree at the University of Sydney Business School.

2. Eligibility

a. To be eligible for the Scholarship, applicants must be an international student as defined in the Higher Education Support Act 2003 at the time of consideration.

b. The applicant must have applied for but not yet commenced a bachelor’s degree or a coursework master’s degree that is a CRICOS registered Award program delivered onshore at the University of Sydney Business School.

c. Applicants commencing a second degree at the University of Sydney are eligible provided they have not previously held the same scholarship.

d. Students applying with credit from partner institutions are eligible to be considered if their credit does not exceed 48 credit points if commencing a bachelor’s degree, or 24 credit points if commencing a master’s degree.

3. Selection Criteria

a. The Scholarship will be awarded to commencing students from diversity priority markets as determined by the University of Sydney Business School at the time of consideration, based on academic merit as assessed from a student’s application for admission.

b. The Scholarship will be awarded on the nomination of a scholarship committee consisting of two senior academic nominees of the Dean of the University of Sydney Business School.

4. Value

a. Three scholarship amounts are offered based on ranking against selection criteria:
   i. $20,000 payable for one year in two equal instalments per semester
   ii. $10,000 payable for one semester
   iii. $5,000 payable for one semester
   The number of scholarships would be determined by the selection committee.

b. Applicants must complete the Acceptance of their Unconditional Scholarship Offer by the relevant deadline associated with their scholarship offer round and remain enrolled after census date.

c. The payment will be made after the census date of each semester.

d. Deferral or suspension of the Scholarship is not permitted except in exceptional circumstances as determined by the scholarship committee of the University of
Business School International Scholarships

Sydney Business School

e. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funds

f. No other amount is payable.

5. Ongoing eligibility

Where an amount is payable in 2 equal instalments, the following requirements apply:

a. To continue receipt of the Scholarship, the recipient must maintain a minimum semester average mark (SAM) of 65 and have no outstanding fees.

b. Recipients undertaking an exchange during the tenure of this Scholarship are required to have achieved a Satisfied Requirements grade (SR) to receive their next payment.

c. The Scholarship is transferable to another major, degree or faculty but is not transferrable to another University.

6. Termination

a. The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:

   i. withdraws from an eligible course or fails to enrol,
   ii. becomes a domestic student by relevant census date,
   iii. commences part-time study without prior approval,
   iv. is determined by the University to be guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information as part of their Scholarship application,
   v. has accepted another scholarship administered by the University of Sydney, vi. does not resume study at the end of a period of approved leave, or
   vii. any other provision as indicated in these terms that would lead to termination.

b. Where a student is found guilty of serious misconduct or withdraws from the relevant course, the University reserves the right to request that any Scholarship funds paid to the Scholarship recipient be reimbursed.

7. Other Requirements

a. Scholarship recipients may be invited to promote the program in which they are enrolled, represent the University of Sydney at student welcome, marketing events and corporate networking events and fulfil the on-campus functions of a Business School Student Ambassador.