The University of Sydney Nano Institute Student Ambassador Scholarship

Terms and Conditions
March 2019

1. Background
a. This Scholarship has been established to assist students achieve practical experience and contribute towards the goals of Sydney Nano through its outreach programs, giving visibility to the study of nanoscience in innovative and creative ways. The successful recipient will produce artifacts/resources, actively contribute to outreach activities, participate in team meetings, play a role in team activities and support the objectives of Sydney Nano.

b. This Scholarship is funded by The University of Sydney Nano Institute (Sydney Nano).

2. Eligibility
a. Applicant must be enrolled full time in a PhD within the University of Sydney working in the areas of Nanoscale science and technology, preferably multi-disciplinary.

b. The applicants must be the holder of a Primary Stipend Scholarship for eg. RTP or equivalent.

c. Applicants must be a Participant of Sydney Nano.

d. Scholarship will be awarded subject to the applicant getting a valid Working with Children Check.

3. Selection Criteria
a. The successful applicant will be awarded the Scholarship on the basis of:
   I. Prior experience of engaging in outreach/science communications activities.
      II. A Personal Statement outlining the following-
          • An example of an outreach/science communications activity showing innovation/creativity.
          • An example of an outreach/science communications activity showing organizational skills e.g. approaching stakeholders, taking initiative and independence
          • What skillset do you bring and what do you want to develop.

b. The Scholarship will be awarded on the nomination of a selection committee consisting of Deputy Director Outreach, Training & Education, Sydney Nano Chief Operating Officer, and two representatives from Sydney Nano Grand Challenges.

4. Value
a. The Scholarship is valued at $5000 p.a and is tenable for two years and cannot be extended.
b. The scholarship amount will be paid as one-off payment each year after the census date.

c. Periods of study already undertaken towards the degree prior to the commencement of the Scholarship will be deducted from the maximum duration of the Scholarship excluding the potential extension period.

d. The Scholarship is for commencement in relevant research period in which it is offered and cannot be deferred or transferred to another area of research without prior approval.

e. No other amount is payable.

f. The Scholarship will be offered subject to the availability of funding.

5. Eligibility for Progression

a. Progression is subject to passing the annual progress review.

6. Leave Arrangements

a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary stipend scholarship.

7. Research Overseas

b. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary stipend scholarship.

8. Suspension

a. The same conditions as indicated in the terms and conditions of the primary stipend scholarship.

9. Changes in Enrolment

a. The Scholarship recipient must notify HDRAC, Sydney Nano and their supervisor promptly of any planned changes to their enrolment including but not limited to: attendance pattern, suspension, leave of absence, withdrawal, course transfer, and candidature upgrade or downgrade. If the award holder does not provide notice of the changes identified above, the University may require repayment of any overpaid stipend.
10. Termination

a. The Scholarship will terminate:

I. on resignation or withdrawal of the student from their research degree,
II. upon submission of the thesis or at the end of the award,
III. if the student ceases to be a full-time student and prior approval has not been obtained to hold the Scholarship on a part-time basis,
IV. upon the student having completed the maximum candidature for their degree as per the University of Sydney (Higher Degree by Research) Rule 2011 Policy,
V. upon receipt of another supplementary stipend scholarship(s) that increases the overall supplementary rate paid to a student to more than 75% of the primary amount. In such circumstances, the supplementary stipend scholarship of the higher value prevails,
VI. if the recipient does not resume study at the end of a period of approved leave, or
VII. if the student ceases to meet the eligibility requirements specified for this Scholarship, (other than during a period in which the Scholarship has been suspended or during a period of approved leave).

b. The Scholarship may also be terminated by the University before this time if, in the opinion of the University:

I. the course of study is not being carried out with competence and diligence or in accordance with the terms of this offer,
II. the student fails to maintain satisfactory progress, or
III. the student has committed misconduct or other inappropriate conduct.

c. Stipend payments will be suspended throughout the duration of any enquiry/appeal process.

d. Once the Scholarship has been terminated, it will not be reinstated unless due to University error.

11. Misconduct

a. Where during the Scholarship a student engages in misconduct, or other inappropriate conduct (either during the Scholarship or in connection with the student’s application and eligibility for the Scholarship), which in the opinion of the University warrants recovery of funds paid to the student, the University may require the student to repay stipend amounts and any other payments made to the student in connection with the Scholarship. Examples of such conduct include and without limitation; academic dishonesty, research misconduct within the meaning of the Research Code of Conduct (for example, plagiarism in proposing, carrying out or reporting the results of research, or failure to declare or manage a serious conflict of interests), breach of the Code of Conduct for Students and misrepresentation in the application materials or other documentation associated with the Scholarship.
b. The University may require such repayment at any time during or after the Scholarship period. In addition, by accepting this Scholarship, the student consents to all aspects of any investigation into misconduct in connection with this Scholarship being disclosed by the University to the funding body and/or any relevant professional body.