NEWS: National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC) Scholarships
The National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC) Scholarships for 2015 are currently open for applications. Applicants must be Australian citizens or permanent residents, or New Zealand citizens holding a Special Category Visa. Persons who have applied for but not yet been granted Australian permanent residency or a Special Category Visa may apply, however permanent residency or the Special Category Visa must be obtained prior to commencement of the scholarship. Draft applications must be submitted to the Scholarships and Financial Support Service for review by Thursday, 5 June 2014.

For further information on the scholarships listed below, please see: http://sydney.edu.au/scholarships/research/medical_scholarships.shtml#nhmrc

Research Scholarships

James Millner PhD Scholarship in Pharmacy
Funding is available for a suitably qualified candidate with a first class honours degree to conduct research on a project as part of the Research Integrity and Science Policy that focuses on describing cultural, social, corporate, political and other influences on the design, conduct and dissemination of research. Applicants must be Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents or New Zealand citizens. Funding is valued at $25,392pa, up to 3 years. Closing Date: 30 June 2014

MPhil Scholarship in Fluid Engineering
Funding is available for a suitably qualified candidate to investigate the energy efficiency of a building with a water wall for thermal energy storage. It is expected that the successful candidate will have experience with both laboratory experiments and CFD (Computational Fluid Dynamics) modelling. Applicants must be Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents or New Zealand citizens. Funding is valued at at $17,500pa, up to 12 months. Closing Date: 9 June 2014

Postgraduate Scholarship in Paediatric Trauma Care
Funding is available for a suitably qualified candidate to to investigate effective treatment pathways for severely injured children from the time of injury through the health care system. Applicants should have an understanding of the NSW Trauma System, extensive clinical experience in critical/emergency care, and must be Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents or New Zealand citizens. Funding is valued at $30,745pa, up to 3 years.

Closing Date: 23 June 2014

Australian Rotary Health Ian Scott PhD Scholarship in Mental Health
The Ian Scott Scholarship is available to postgraduate students who are undertaking full-time research for a PhD in an area of research relevant to mental health. Applicants must be Australian citizens or Australian Permanent Residents and not be under bond to any foreign government. Applicants enrolled in a combined degree are not eligible to apply. Funding is valued at $29,000pa up to 3.5 years.

Closing Date: 26 September 2014

GESA 2015 Postgraduate Biomedical Research Scholarship and GESA 2015 Postgraduate Clinical Research Scholarship
Funding is available to support a medical or science graduate wishing to gain research training in basic sciences related to gastroenterology and hepatology, leading to a degree of PhD, or, wishing to gain experience methodology pertinent to any aspect of clinical research related to gastroenterology or hepatology disorders, while enrolled for a research Masters or PhD. Applicants must be an Australian citizen or hold Australian permanent residency and must be a current financial member of the Gastroenterological Society of Australia. Funding is valued at the NHMRC Research Scholarship rate.

Closing Date: 22 August 2014

Kidney Health Australia Medical, Science, and Allied Health Research Scholarships
Kidney Health Australia provides scholarships for individuals wishing to study full time for postgraduate research degrees, by undertaking research into the causes, prevention and treatment of disorders of the kidney. Funding is valued at the NHMRC basic research rate, up to 3 years.

Closing Date: 31 August 2014