A.T. Kearney Australia New Zealand are committed to supporting ambitious and driven women to build successful careers in management consulting and are very pleased to be running our Women’s Scholarship Program again in 2019.

This year, we are offering two female students the opportunity to be A.T. Kearney Women’s Scholars for 2020 – one in our general practice and one in our Solutions practice.

About A.T. Kearney
A.T. Kearney is a leading global management consulting firm with offices in more than 40 countries. Since 1926, we have been trusted advisors to the world’s foremost organisations. A.T. Kearney is a partner-owned firm, committed to helping clients achieve success.

A.T. Kearney Solutions, a specialist unit within A.T. Kearney, have a focus on procurement and supply chain, helping companies move to a sustainably lower cost base, transform their supply management practices, adopt innovative operating models, and understand how collaboration technology can be used to achieve strategic objectives.

Scholarship details
The A.T. Kearney Women’s Scholarship is open to female students in their second year through to penultimate year of university. The recipient will be provided with:

• Up to $15,000 to be used to support either their next year of study or other educational related activities;
• Mentorship from a senior female consultant;
• A 10-week internship over summer in either our Sydney or Melbourne office (typically from end November to February); and
• Access to all in-house training.

What we are seeking
We value problem solvers who are ready to contribute ideas, share their views and new information.

We are looking for high achieving women in their second through to penultimate year undergraduate students from all disciplines. Note, as an exception, applications from students in a master’s degree (non-MBA) at the University of Melbourne and University of Western Australia will be accepted.

The ideal scholar also demonstrates qualities of:
• A leader;
• A critical and creative thinker;
• A great communicator; and
• Has strong personal impact.

To be eligible for the scholarship, you must be:
• A female student in your second through to penultimate year of study; and
• An Australian citizen or permanent resident or a New Zealand citizen.

How to apply
Applicants are asked to submit both items below to be considered:

1. Submit a 1- to 2-minute video in response to the below: “Tell us about a time where someone inspired you and why.”

Videos need to be submitted to www.wetransfer.com and specify recruitment.au@atkearney.com as the “email to” address and

2. Submit a cover letter, CV and academic transcripts to https://atkcareers.taleo.net/careersection/033/jobdetail.ftl?job=002R8 (unofficial copies are acceptable).

Cover letters should be addressed to ‘ANZ Recruitment Team’ and include a brief paragraph on why you are interested in management consulting and/or A.T. Kearney.

Applications close on Wednesday 12 June 2019 at 11:59pm AEST. No late applications will be accepted.

Recruitment process
Our Women’s Scholarship Finalist’s Day will be held on Friday 21 June 2019 in either our Sydney or Melbourne office and shortlisted finalists must be available to attend the day. A.T. Kearney will support those finalists located interstate or in New Zealand with travel arrangements.

Enquires
Please email recruitment.au@atkearney.com if you have any questions or concerns.

Like us on Facebook “A.T. Kearney Australia” to be kept up to date with the latest information and happenings around the ANZ unit.