Conditions of Award
University of Sydney Honours Scholarships

1. The University of Sydney Honours Scholarships are available to both Domestic and International students enrolling in an appended Honours Program at the University of Sydney in 2017. However, International students must have completed their undergraduate degree at the University of Sydney. Applicants who already hold a scholarship of equal or higher value at the University of Sydney are not eligible.

2. The scholarships shall be awarded on the basis of academic merit and personal attributes such as leadership and creativity. The Faculties of Arts, Health Sciences, Science and the Sydney Business School may also award scholarships on the basis of equity.

3. Each scholarship is offered for, and is tenable in, a specific Honours program and is not transferable to another degree program.

4. A confirmed offer of a scholarship must be taken up by enrollment in the nominated Honours program and cannot be deferred.

5. Each scholarship is for one year only and is valued at $6,000. The recipient will be required to refund all or part of the scholarship received if s/he subsequently withdraws from the nominated Honours program. Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will be approved under review of any extenuating circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student's capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be approved by the Scholarships Office; if approved, payment will be 50% of the amount of the normal payment.

6. The University of Sydney Honours Scholarships will be paid in two equal instalments of $3000 after the census dates each semester, subject to continued enrolment.

7. The scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:
   a) accepts another university scholarship of equal or higher value
   b) enrolls part-time without the prior approval from the Scholarships Office to hold the scholarship part-time
   c) withdraws from the Honours degree
   d) is found to not meet the eligibility criteria

8. Once terminated, the scholarship will not be reinstated
