John Flood Memorial Scholarship

The scholarship is awarded for the best proposal by any student in the Discipline of Pathology to undertake a short period of research in the Discipline of Pathology.

Scholarship value and duration
A single payment of $1,700 will be made to the successful applicant on the completion of their project.

Eligibility criteria
1. Applicants must be currently enrolled in the University of Sydney Medical Program, a higher degree by research in the Discipline of Pathology or have met the requirements for award of an Honours degree in the Faculty of Science.
2. Applicants must be willing to undertake a scholarship in the area of neuropathology.

For more information
Student Administration Services
T 1800 SYD UNI (1800 793 864)
T +61 2 8627 1444 (outside Australia)
E scholarships.officer@sydney.edu.au

Background
Established in 1990 from donations made by friends of Dr John Flood of Wollongong who died in 1988. The scholarship is awarded for the best proposal by any student in the Discipline of Pathology to undertake a short period of research (e.g. during an elective term or vacation) in the Discipline of Pathology.

Selection criteria
- The successful applicant will be awarded the scholarship on the basis of:
  - Research proposal,
  - Letter of support from potential supervisor, and
  - Timeline for completion.
- The scholarship is awarded by Professor Jillian Kril or nominee.

Payment schedule
- A single payment on the completion of the successful applicant's project.
SC0326 John Flood Memorial Scholarship

V217 - Terms and Conditions

1. Background

a. Established in 1990 from donations made by friends of Dr John Flood of Wollongong who died in 1988. The scholarship is awarded for the best proposal by any student in the Discipline of Pathology to undertake a short period (e.g. during an elective term or vacation) of research in the Discipline of Pathology.

2. Eligibility

a. Applicants must be currently enrolled in the University of Sydney Medical Program, a higher degree by research in the Discipline of Pathology or have met the requirements for award of an Honours degree in the Faculty of Science.

b. Applicants must be willing to undertake a scholarship in the area of neuropathology.

3. Selection Criteria

a. The successful applicant will be awarded the Scholarship on the basis of:

   i. Research Proposal

   ii. Letter of support from potential supervisor, and

   iii. Timeline for completion

b. The Scholarship is awarded by Professor Jillian Kril or nominee.

4. Value

a. A single payment of $1,700 will be made to the successful applicant on the completion of their project

5. Termination

a. Unless terminated earlier under this paragraph, the Scholarship will terminate:

   i. on resignation or withdrawal of the student from their course;

   ii. if the project is not completed within the timeframe specified,

   iii. if the student ceases to be a full-time student and prior approval has not been obtained to hold the Scholarship on a part-time basis, or

   iv. If the student ceases to meet the eligibility requirements specified for this Scholarship, (other than during a period in which the Scholarship has been suspended or during a period of approved leave).

b. The Scholarship may also be terminated by the University before this time if, in the opinion of the University:

   i. the course of study is not being carried out with competence and diligence or in accordance with the terms of this offer,

   ii. the student fails to maintain satisfactory progress,
iii. the student has committed misconduct or other inappropriate conduct.

c. Once the Scholarship has been terminated, it will not be reinstated.

6. Misconduct

a. Where during the Scholarship a student engages in misconduct, or other inappropriate conduct (either during the Scholarship or in connection with the student’s application and eligibility for the Scholarship), which in the opinion of the University warrants recovery of funds paid to the student, the University may require the student to repay payments made to the student in connection with the Scholarship. Examples of such conduct include and without limitation; academic dishonesty, research misconduct within the meaning of the Research Code of Conduct (for example, plagiarism in proposing, carrying out or reporting the results of research, or failure to declare or manage a serious conflict of interests), breach of the Code of Conduct for Students and misrepresentation in the application materials or other documentation associated with the Scholarship.

b. The University may require such repayment at any time during or after the Scholarship period. In addition, by accepting this Scholarship, the student consents to all aspects of any investigation into misconduct in connection with this Scholarship being disclosed by the University to the funding body and/or any relevant professional body.