SSEAC Visiting PhD Scholar Fund
2016 Guidelines

SSEAC offers subsidies to PhD students to travel to Australia to spend a period of their candidature at the University of Sydney. Applicants must identify an academic member of SSEAC to sponsor their visit. Additionally they must provide a plan of what they are planning to do and what they hope to achieve during their time at the University of Sydney.

During their visit, the PhD students will be interviewed for a website profile, asked to present a seminar about their research and are expected to participate in the activities of the SSEAC postgraduate community.

For the purposes of the grant, Southeast Asia is defined as Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Timor-Leste and Vietnam.

Eligibility and Conditions

SSEAC PhD scholars must:

- be enrolled at a university in a PhD program
- have an academic member of SSEAC sponsor their visit
- be doing research about Southeast Asia that fits within at least one of the five SSEAC research clusters (economic and social development, environment and resources, health, heritage and the arts, state and society)

Criteria for Award

The applications will be assessed by the SSEAC Executive Committee using the following criteria:

- robustness of the plan of the visit
- compatibility of their research program to the research interests of their sponsoring faculty

Budget and Timeframe

Up to $4,000 can be requested for travel costs. Please provide indicative quotations for flights with your application. The following items cannot be funded by the SSEAC Grant:

- equipment
- conferences

Funds will be accessible by November 2016 and must be spent by June 2018.
All grant recipients will be required to submit a final report by June 2018.

Submission and Deadlines
Submissions must be made to SSEAC by: 5pm Friday 16 September, 2016.
