

SIR ZELMAN COWEN UNIVERSITIES FUND PRIZE FOR DISCOVERY IN MEDICAL RESEARCH

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Sir Zelman Cowen Universities Fund Prize for Discovery in Medical Research is awarded by the Sir Zelman Cowen Universities Fund based in Sydney, Australia. The Prize was established in November 2004 in honour of the Fund's Patron, Sir Zelman Cowen who had served as Governor General of Australia from 1977-1982.

Nominations are now sought for the award of the Sir Zelman Cowen Universities Fund Prize for 2019.

The Prize, which recognizes discovery in medical research, is awarded in alternate years at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and at the University of Sydney. For the 2019 Prize, nominations are invited from scientists working at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Nominations should be made according to the guidelines set out below and sent by email to the submission address specified by Thursday, 15 November 2018.

Guidelines:

- The Prize, which will comprise an award of AUS$20,000 and a medal, will be for discovery in medical research performed principally at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.
- Nominees should have made a major contribution to the understanding or treatment of disease.
- The nomination should identify the potential or achievement of the discovery for therapeutic outcomes.
- Nominees should be 45 years of age or younger at 31 December 2018.
- It is anticipated that the award will be announced in March/April 2019.
- The prize will be awarded in a ceremony at the HU Board of Governors' Meeting in June, 2019.
- Nominations should be completed in English following the guidelines and pro forma available from the Fund's Office by email from: szcuf@anatomy.usyd.edu.au
